Dear Mrs. Culley,

I just read your article on the Coffey line that you are researching.

I have also been researching my family tree. One of Campbell Coffey's daughters, Isabelle married into my family. She married Thomas Monroe Ballance who was born 7-31-1860 and died 9-17-1930. Isabelle survived Thomas but I do not have her death date.

Thomas was the son of Martha Davis (born 1838) and William Ballance (born 1832). Martha was the daughter of William (born 1804, died 3-13-1864) and Harriet (last name unknown, born 4-02-1810, died 4-16-1888) Davis. William and Harriet were my great-great-great-great-grandparents.

I do not know if Thomas and Isabelle had any children. So far I have not found any record of any. She was his second wife. He had no children from his first wife, Sarah Fenton Wakefield. Campbell Coffey was living in Dixon, MO at the time Isabelle married Thomas.

If you have any additional information on Isabelle I would appreciate it. I am also working on a Hayes line that eventually married into the Davis line. I have all the information on my computer and am sending you copies of what I have so far.

I hope it might help you.

Sincerely,

Mary Jackson

Dear Mr. [Name]

I have read your article on the Coffey line that you are researching.
I have also been researching my family tree. One of Campbell Coffey's daughters, Laddie, married into the Coffey line. She married Thomas Ballance who was born 7-31-1860 and died 9-17-1920. Laddie survived Thomas but I do not have her death date.

Thomas was the son of Martha Davis (born 1828) and William Ballance (born 1820). Martha was the daughter of William (born 1804, died
3-10-1870) and Harriet (last name unknown, born 6-23-1810, died
6-16-1885) Davis. William and Harriet were my great-great-great-grandparents.

I do not know if Thomas and Laddie had any children. So far I have not found any record of any. She has his second wife. He had no children from his first wife, Sarah Fannan Hackett. Campbell Coffey was living in Dixon, IL at the time Laddie married Thomas.

If you have any additional information on Laddie I would appreciate it. I am also working on a Hayes line that eventually merged into the Coffey line. I have all the information on my computer and am sending you copies of what I have so far.

I hope it might help you.

Sincerely,

William Ballance
