Preface

This Appendix contains information on the surname Rucker. The data has been gathered from many sources, including several correspondents interested in the same lines. The following persons have made major contributions to the content of this document, and I express my deepest appreciation for their help and support. (I fear, however, that the errors contained herein were made by me, without assistance of any kind.)

Nine generations of selected descendants of Peter Rucker, the immigrant, including the children of Youmbert C. Payne. Many of the listed "members" are placed in the family hierarchy based on assumptions, perceived probabilities, and/or recommendations of members with whom I correspond. I have attempted to note all those cases which have not been proven by me with generally accepted documentation, and the basis on which they are included. You may then judge those suitable for your use, or belief.

FIRST GENERATION

1. Peter Rucker. Born About 1675<sup>146</sup> in Europe. Died Before 23 Feb 1743/1744 in St. Marks Parish, Orange Co., VA.

1. Peter Rucker's application for citizenship was accepted on 8 May 1704 by the Virginia House of Burgesses.<sup>264</sup> The law regarding naturalization "on the books" at that time was:

"Act CXVIII

Concerning Denization

Bee it alsoe further enacted and confirmed by the authoritie aforesaid, That all aliens and strangers who have inhabited the countrye the space of fower yeeres, and have a firme resolution to make this countrye their place of residence shall be free denisons of this collony, Provided they and everie of them take the oath of fidelite to be true to the government of this countrye, And the said oath is to be administered by the severall courts respectively in the counties where anie such aliens do dwell: And it is also further enacted that their children also shall be free denisons of this countrye they and everie of them, Also takeing the said oath of fidellity when they shall attain to lawfull age, which said oath is to be administered by the severall countie courts where they shall happen to live as aforesaid."<sup>527</sup>

They were a mixed group, from sons of cultured Tidewater families to indentured servants. At about the time of an infamous flood (May 1771), Anthony invented the James River batteau. The advantages of the batteau over the dugout canoes commonly used for commercial transportation on the James River were that it could be built more quickly from boards sawed by water powered sawmill, and that it could carry more hogsheads of tobacco. There was a public launching on the James witnessed by Mr. Thomas Jefferson. Anthony's invention was not patented until 1820. Thomas Jefferson and the patent office settled the dispute in favor of Anthony."<sup>378</sup>

9. He then took his family to British West Florida (now MS) in the area of Natchez.
10. Mississippi Department of Archives and History, English Provincial Archives, Record Group 25, Roll 30, contains the following: "Read the petition of Sarah Rucker setting forth "That your petitioner arrived with her late husband and family in this province in May 1775, with the intent of settling. 5. With the end of the Revolutionary War, Spain was ceded the Floridas, ending the land speculation in those areas from a British standpoint. ". . . By treaty of peace between Great Britain and Spain, in 1783, the absolute time of 18 months was given to his Britannic Majesty's subjects to enable them to sell their estates and remove their effects, accompanied by a declaration that, should not that time be sufficient to answer those purposes, his Catholic Majesty would give a prolongation proportioned to that end. In 1785, a prolongation of four months was given by the King of Spain. [After that] the Spanish government considered the lands held under British patents which had not received . . . confirmation, as being vacant. . . . [these lands, then] were indiscriminately re-granted by the Spanish Government . . ."439

6. In a "Report of Claims founded on British and Spanish Warrants of Survey within the District west of Pearl River, disallowed by the Board of commissioners made in pursuance of the fourth section of an act, entitled 'An act concerning the sales of the lands of the United States, and for other purposes,' passed March 31, 1808," Sarah Davis, representing her "son Coleby & others" was disallowed a claim for 400 acres on Bayou Pierre, derived from British records dated Feb 21, 1778, because of "No evidence [of title]"440

7. Sarah was married twice following Peter Rucker's death. A family Bible in the possession of a descendant of Jonathon Rucker listed the birth of "Frederick Friley, half brother to the above about 1776," which implies a marriage to a Mr. Friley, possibly in 1775 ("the above" were Colby, Jonathon, Susannah, Catherine, and William Rucker.)

8. The following chronology compiled by Owen Roberts of Brookhaven, MS, and furnished by Mary Hannah, is a probable description of the Friley connection [the source(s) of much of the data were not provided.] It appears that Sarah Wisdom Rucker married Matthias Friley ca 1777/1778 and had a son Frederick soon thereafter.

- 1773 Matthias Friley arrived in British West Florida

- 19 Aug 1777 Matthias Friley signed a note to John Bloomart for six dollars and six reales.

- 11 Oct 1777 Matthias Freyley applied for land in British West Florida, and was granted 150 acres (the usual allowance for a single man) on Bayou Pierre.

- 21 Sep 1781 Matthias Friley was dead by this date when his note was listed with other notes held by John Bloomart's estate. ( An annotation on Friley's note indicated that he was dead and his wife and property were in Natchez.)

- 25 Jan 1799 Frederick Friley and William Rucker, joint owners of certain property, sold the same to Robert Cochran. (See Adams County, MS, Court Record Book B, pp 220-221.)

- 8 Jan 1822 Frederick Friley had died, and his half-brother William Rucker, and his half-sister Catherine Rucker Turnbull relinquished their interest in his property, real and personal, to their brother Jonathon Rucker. (Claiborne County, MS, Book G, pg 72.)

- 11 Feb 1822 Susannah Rucker Bisland relinquished her interest in the property of Frederick Friley, her half-brother, to her brother Jonathon Rucker. ibid

9. An entry in the previously mentioned Natchez Claims Book E, dated 27 April 1807 refers to "Sarah Davis, formerly Sarah Rucker," which indicates her third marriage, prior to that date.

173. Colby Rucker. Born 10 Oct 1760 in Culpeper Co., VA. Died 20 Jan 1852 in Thorn Hill, Grainger Co., TN.

1. For the period 25 October 1781 to 24 December 1781, Coleby Rucker and Henry Pumphrey are listed as privates on the muster roll of Captain Isaac Atwood's Company, of the King's American Regiment in Savannah, GA, with a notation by each name, "enlisted 31 Oct 1781." For the period 25 April 1782 to 24 June 1782, the same Company contains the names, Colly Rucker and Henry Pumphrey, with a notation beside "Colly's" name, "dead, 19 Mar 1782." (This Regiment was raised by Colonel Edmund Fanning in New York in 1776. After service in the north they were sent into Virginia and afterwards were transferred to Charleston and Savannah where they took part in many operations in the southern theater. In 1783 they went to Canada where they were disbanded.)<sup>460</sup>

2. A letter from an assistant administrator in the office of pensions found in Colby Rucker's Revolutionary War Pension File number R9061 states, "that while residing near Natchez on the Mississippi River, Colby Rucker enlisted about 1778 or 1779, and served for eighteen months under Captain Alston and Colonel Blunt and was engaged as a ranger up and down the Mississippi, and was in frequent skirmishes with the British and Indians; that after this service, in consequence of a disagreement with his stepfather, he started in company with Henry Pumphrey and some other men for the state of North Carolina, and while on the journey thither, they were captured by the British, [according to Henry Pumphrey's claim in his pension application, no. W8535, they were captured on the Ocone River in the state of Georgia by Captain Ingram, a Tory] carried to Savannah, Georgia and held in captivity for from four to six months, when he and Henry Pumphrey made their escape by disguising themselves in women's clothing, and went to Wilkes County, North Carolina; that they volunteered in said Wilkes County, and served two tours of three months each under Captain John Keys and Colonels Benjamin Harrahd and McDowell.' 'The claim was not allowed as proof of service of six months as required by the pension law was not furnished." Included in pension file is a statement from the State of North Carolina Comptroller's Office with the state seal affixed, "I, William J. Clarke, comptroller of public accounts in and for the State aforesaid do hereby certify that it appears of record in my office, among the payments made by said State to sundry persons for Military services in the Revolutionary War, as follows, to wit: Colby Rucker Indent for army certificate issued by the auditors of Morgan District No. 3587 April 1784, £13, 1 shilling specie. In testimony whereof I have hereunto subscribed my name and affixed my seal of office this 4th day of September A.D. 1854. William J. Clarke, Comptroller"

3. North Carolina Revolutionary Army Accounts, Volume VIII, S. 115.57, entry 1459, is for "C. Rucker - £13, 1 shilling, and 2 pence."

4. Declarations, included Colby's Revolutionary War pension file, made by William and Colbert Hayes, and Aaron McGinnis in Dec 1852 stated that "Colby Rucker often recounted that he lived near Natchez with his father on Bayou Pere, and was in service under Blount with Henry Pumphrey as a Mississippi ranger. That the British took the Fort at Natchez and it was afterwards retaken from them. That on account of his so served he had a difficulty with his father, and when his time expired he and Pumphrey started for N. Carolina and were captured by the British and were taken to Savannah ... Henry Pumphrey declared in Nov 1832 that he served two tours of 18 mos each as a ranger at and near Natchez; gives a full account of the service - the taking and retaking of Natchez - and of his return to the east, being taken prisoner by Capt. Ingraham of the British Col Campbell's rangers, and of his escape and subsequent service of 3 months. ... In 1839, after his death, his widow applied for a pension (he had been pensioned at $80) which was refused for want of proof of service. In 1843 Rucker testified that he knew that Pumphrey served in and near Natchez as he had stated and gave an account of their return - capture - escape - and subsequent 3 mos. service. On appeal to the Secy of the Interior, he decided that a service such as described had been rendered on the Mississippi River and that the narrative agreed so well with Monetti's history, published after Pumphrey's declaration was made, that it substantiated his statements and the claim should be admitted. A letter written by Samuel Mitchell, Territorial Agent for the Choctaws, in Feby 1778, shows that at that time 3 companies of men were on duty on that station - thus corroborating Monetti and the narratives in these two cases. The strong probability that a man of the right spirit would have been in the service at the time if living near Natchez - the fact (though only traditionary) that Rucker quarreled with his father on account of his adhesion to and service in the American cause, taken in connection with the declaration made by Pumphrey when he supposed Rucker was dead, the fact that Rucker was 18 years of age in 1778 and that he was afterwards companion in arms and in perils with Pumphrey all conspire towards establishing the fact that Rucker was in service before he left Natchez. The witnesses concur in the statement that Rucker sturdily refused to apply for a pension although he always asserted he was entitled to one, on the ground that he did not need it and did not want to be a beggar. There remains the question of the duration of service at Natchez. It would not be reasonable to suppose that he was in that service less than six months. Pumphrey alleges that his tours were 18 mos. each in duration. Monetti shows that the service extended through the years 1777-8-9."

766. Horace Virgil Payne. Born 31 Jul 1913 in Wofford, Whitley Co., KY.

1. Information obtained from brother Arnold P. Payne which he, in turn, had obtained from Virgil Payne whose residence in Jan 1996 was at 312 Waddell, Selma, NC 27576.
2. Listed as a Junior at Cumberland College in the 1933-1934 Annual. [Payn1161]
3. The Payne family remained in the Whitley County area until sometime in the 1920s.

Virgil completed the seventh grade at Benham, KY, where Joseph was the superintendent of mines for a local coal company. The family then moved to Evarts and Virgil completed his elementary schooling there. He began high school at Cumberland College, a combination high school and junior college and completed three years there, before moving to Pennington Gap, Virginia with his family. He was graduated from Pennington Gap High School in 1932. After high school, Virgil began his advanced education, again at Cumberland College. After one year there he joined the work force for some time, after which he went to Wake Forest University on a baseball and basketball scholarship, enrolling in that institution in 1936.

After graduating from Wake Forest in 1938 he accepted a teaching position at Corinth-Holder High School in Johnston County, North Carolina, to keep busy until time to report to a minor league baseball team to which he was assigned by their parent major league club, the St. Louis Browns. He remained at that high school in the baseball off-season for three years. He continued in professional baseball as a player and player-manager until 1951.

Prior to World War II, Virgil played baseball in the Appalachian League and the Northern League. He made his managerial debut at Superior, Wisconsin.

While teaching school in Johnston County, Virgil met and married Mabel Oliva Norden in April, 1942. He then served three years in the U. S. Navy, entering the service in December, 1942. While in the Navy, he managed a service baseball team.

Following the war, Virgil managed and played with Greenville and Goldsboro of the Coastal Plains League. He also joined the Selma High School faculty in 1947, where he taught and coached. He was the only coach the school had at that time, so he coached all sports. In his first year, his football team had a 7-3 record, his basketball team a 24-3 mark, and his baseball team went 14-0.

In the summer of 1948, Virgil joined the Smithfield-Selma Leafs of the Class D Tobacco State League. An even more significant event occurred that summer with his and Mabel's only son being born on 3 September in Sanford, NC.

Virgil continued his high school coaching through 1975. During that time his teams were extremely successful. The combined wins of Virgil Payne-coached teams is estimated to exceed 1200, believed to be the most of any coach in North Carolina history. He was a major force in girl's basketball and American Legion baseball for boys in North Carolina. He was inducted into the NC American Legion Baseball Hall of Fame. He has managed or coached six athletes who went on to become major league baseball players.

He married Mabel Oliva Norden, 13 Apr 1942 in Selma, Johnston Co., NC. Born 20 Aug 1907 in Johnston Co., NC. Died 9 Jun 1973 in Selma, NC. They adopted the following child:
