DEAR COUSIN: Recent letters from three of our group separately mentioned a family tradition that " Three Coffee/Coffey brothers came from Ireland to America at a very early date. " The first report was interesting but seemed to require no particular emphasis. The next two, however, reinforced the first and began to create an idea. One of Willard Heiss' ANCESTORITIS columns discussed the "Stone Wall" that family researchers collide with. We have called it our "Dead End Road". Surely some of our ancestors lived their lives without purchasing land, recording a marriage, or will, or being listed in a census. Some intentionally became lost to escape a servitude contract or other legal problem. These "stone walls" seem to confound us Coffeys in the search for our roots. Could the families of Joel 1730-89 and Hugh 1784-1861 be descended from the other two brothers of John who arrived in 1637? What is your thought?

A new feature this issue is Tim Peterman's page called "Documents Galore". Tim believes we can rely too much on inquiries and other's research, failing to exploit original records that can reveal much about our family. You have seen in CCC how hard Tim has worked on many lines. Now we will be devoting a page each issue to his data. In September it will list some who were missed in the early Census but found by Tim,

CCC is amazed but pleased by the number of new cousins since March, We hope letters will fly and September can report conclusions reached by your exchange of data.

At one time CCC offered new 1982 members the four issues of 1981 for four dollars. Now we are telling new cousins the five issues of '81 are available for $5.00. Here's why: The January '81 issue was intended as a feeler and trial to see if sufficient interest existed to warrant a continuation. Now that we have continued a similar format and there is interest CCC is forced to consider it our original issue (NO 1) meaning that 1981 had 5 issues of CCC. For members who lost or never received the (NO 1) it is available on xerox for $1.00. All other issues are also available (most xeroxed) for $1.00 per copy.

ANCESTORITIS by WILLARD HEISS

Most English genealogists face a 100 year privacy law before release of census data. In the U.S. we face only a 72 year delay. Hence the 1910 U.S. census is now public. It may be a while before all libraries can obtain their copies. Indexes are ready for AL, AR, CA, FL, GA, IL, KS, KY, LA, MI, MS, MO, NC, OH, OK, PA, SC, TN, TX, VA, WV.
(Excerpt May 15, 1982)

I SEE IN THE PAPER

To prevent newspaper clippings from yellowing: Mix one tablet milk of magnesia with one quart club soda. Let mix chill in fridge thoroughly. Then with liquid in shallow pan soak clippings for an hour. Pat dry with paper towel then on flat surface allow to dry completely. (Better make a trial run first)

The Monroe Co. Ind. Genealogical Society (Old Library 202 E. 6th Bloomington 47401) will have members on duty to receive pedigrees and assist in research Tue-Fri 1-4, They would also like to have your name to list in their Sesquicentennial Register if your direct ancestor lived there prior to 1832, If your people were there between 1832 and 1882 you can be in the Centennial Register, CCC knows many cousins qualify. Gail Darling of Huntington Beach CA wrote letters to all people he could find listed in phone books with hi3 ancestors last name. After several years he received a call from Arkansas. It was a distant cousin. Recently he and 5 other descendants of his ggggrandfather had a reunion. One of whom was 78 years old. They met hugged and had a real good time.

The biggest family in Texas may be the HOELSCHER_BUXKEMPER family. They just had their 15th reunion in the San Angelo Coliseum. It was attended by 1200 of the family but 11,000 couldn't make it. In 1846 Anton Hoelscher came to Texas from Prussia and these are his offspring.

For nine Memorial Days and hundred's of other times, Winston Coffman and wife have visited the grave of Jonathon Ward (?- ca 1840) Rev. War vet. They had to trudge nearly a mile through mud, high weeds and cross a creek to the nearly hidden solitary grave. The Coffmans wore colonial attire, placed a flag and Winston age 64, fired a salute from his antique musket over the site near Brownsburg Ind.

ELIZABETH HECOX says " I am enjoying the CCC tremendously and amazed at the cousins who also are researching. My grandfather, Nebuzaraden, b, 1831, son of Willis, b, 1804 left the tradition that he was descended from three brothers by the name of O' Coffey who sailed to America in the 1600's. They each had 12 children. Unfortunately he left no information regarding the first names of the three brothers, "

BRANCHES OFF THE TREE

There were so many fine pedigrees and trees submitted we would like to print them all. Daraleen Wade shows her family on her letterhead back to her great grandparents; Ash, Phillips, Lynes, Hough, Downing, Carpenter, Read, and Porter. Virginia Petersen sent 5 family data sheets on the Daltons descended from C. Jackson and Mary A. Coffey, whose children were Lucretis 1834, Louisa 1836, Perlina 1837, Abner 1845, Mahaly 1848, Delpha(Lidda) 1850, Sarah 1862, Hulda ? Cousin like Marie Ryals told family stories and colorful, and sad events of the past. Marie's McCaleb who lost sons: John, Jesse, and Thomas in the 1861-5 war. Son C, J, Was seriously wounded at Richmond, Constance Baarsch tells of her grandfather James Alexander Coffey who after law school at the U, of Minnesota, noticed the beautiful Josephine Andrews working in his partner's office. Of course Josephine became Mrs, Coffey, Len Coffey thinks it interesting how values have changed. His ancestor's estate in 1844 lists these items sold at auction: Red heifer $2.31; Singletrees $2.46; Gary plough $1.25; Black cow and calf $7.06½; One razor & 1.75; Bull Calf $1.12; mans saddle $6.00; cutting box $4.01; hoe $.25. In a similar vein, Tim Peterman thinks it could be very illuminating to see a list of Nebuzaraden's(d. 1797) grandchildren. We'll bet on Tim to be in the fore of any new family discoveries. Tim has found these Coffees in the census of 1810, Wilkes NC but omitted in the index: William 10100-00100-00, Lewis 20001-20010-00, Levi 30110-20010-00, John 10010-12010-00, James 30010-20010-00. In letters received at the deadline, Margaret Eilling, Rt. 3 Box 26 Jamestown Ky. 42629 gives many names of early Russell Co. Ky. including James b. Va. 1795 m. Mahaly b. 1803. And Brenda Wood, Box 218 Chandler, In 47610 saw CCC at the Ky Hist. Lib. in Frankfort and wants to be a cousin.
