The Semi-Weekly Interior Journal of Stanford KY reported on July 27, 1885:

MARRIAGES: Mr. B. F. Coffey and Miss Maude Wright eloped from Monticello to Tennessee and were married by a justice in Fentriss County. The Signal says the contracting parties were seated on their horses while the dignified official, who was both hatless and coatless with his pantaloons held up by a single nail, performed the ceremony. Submitted by ETHEL Y. C. COFFEY.

Bacon and Beans from a Gold Pan by Jesse Coffey and George Hooper. A Ballentine Book pub. by Doubleday and Co., 1973.

Jesse Coffey was a "sniper". That was the term for men who in 1935 tried their luck mining gold in the creeks of California. The same creeks had seen the white men in 1849. When they got what they could hurriedly find, the Chinese moved in in the 1850's and gleaned the leavings. Now Jesse Coffey was newly married, unemployed, and the owner of $18.00 cash. He and Dot lived in San Jose. They had an apartment and an old Chevy but couldn't afford gas. As a boy, he had panned gold and on some trips to the mountains, Dot had learned to pan and had found gold. So they abandoned the city and the employment lines, went to the mountains, set up a tent, a mine and a canvas one holer dubbed "The Rose Room". They found enough gold to survive, but found more riches in an independant life style. In 1972 Jesse and Dot were retired in San Andreas, CA. Excerpts sent by FRANK CROSSWHITE

Dear Cousin,

Shortly after we all became involved together in this Coffee, Coffey family business it seemed to me that we were dealing with three old, large families and a few later, smaller ones. The three old families being those of Edward, Peter, and Chesley. Until a concrete theory exists for a relationship connecting these to each other we must consider them separate families. (There are, though, tantalizing similarities between some branches of Edward and Chesley's families.) A fine lot of genealogies has been compiled for Edward and Peter. A great deal of information has also been gathered for the descendants of Chesley but as yet has not been organized into one work. This month saw one of those occasions where a question and its answer arrived from different persons, cousins, yet probably not acquainted. Events like those are what we hoped would happen with CCC. It involves the Chesley Coffee/y family and triggers the thought that we would like to see something comprehensive put together on that family. We even felt it was justified to reprint the Chesley Coffey family chart from CCC #21 to correct some errors and add Loree Miller's information on Chesley's daughter, Mary Gilbreath.

Susan Hollis, 6411 S. Quay Ct., Littleton, CO 80123 invites us all to the HISAW family reunion, embracing all U. S. HISAW, HYSAW, HIGHSAW families. The event is at the Civic Center, Northport, AL July 17, 1988. Susan and the HISAW FAMILY NEWSLETTER have much information on people of this name, including Revolutionary veterans Frederick Highsaw, Burke Co. NC and Henry Hysaw, Augusta Co. VA. Later Hisaws were in TN, GA, SC, AL, MS, MO, TX, OK. Susan would like to know the full name of "Mr. Hison" who married Eleanor, daughter of Reuben Coffey (1759-1842) of Wayne Co., KY.

The Coffey-Webb line is of interest to Kathryn Vickery, 907 Ferry St., Anderson, SC 29624. She is sure that Jane, daughter of Reuben and Sally Scott Coffey married into the Webb family but to whom? Some of the family say the Jane that Benjamin Webb married was Jane Coffey. The DAR says Jane m. James Webb. The will of James Crittenden Webb, Jr. indicates his death occurred before 25 July 1836. Some James Webb was a petitioner for Reuben's land sale in 1838. Sally Coffey and James Webb witnessed the oral will of John Webb in 1826. Perhaps James Webb was the son of Sally. James Crittenden Webb was b. ca 1738 and d. ca 1805. His wife was Elizabeth. Their children were 1. Benjamin 1760-1826/7 m. Jane____. 2. Mary 1762- m. David Baker 3. Elizabeth 1764-1818 m. Laban Estes. 4. James C. Jr. 1765-1836. 5. William 1769- . 6. John 1771-1826 m. Margaret?. 7. Reuben 1773-1847 m. Sarah Neely. 8. Stephen 1775-.

Benjamin Webb and wife Jane were parents of John C. 1788, Nancy 1790, Sidnea 1792, Elizabeth 1794, Thomas C. 1798, Mary, Elijah Clawson 1802, James Critt. 1805, Patsy.

MEET OUR NEW COUSINS

GENE COFFEY is the great-great grandson of Fielding Gatewood Coffey and Sarah Jane Coffey. He and his cousin, FAYE MCQUILLING are corresponding on this branch of the Chesley Coffey descendants.

CHENA CRIDER and J. F. COFFEY are sister and brother of Faye McQuilling. Their father was Green More Coffey of Russell Co., KY. (CCC #20 p. 7).

PATRICIA CHRISTENSEN is the daughter of Jesse John Coffey and Mildred Irene Phares. Jesse J. was b. in Anderson Co., TN July 31, 1923. He and Mildred were m. Dec. 27, 1949. Jesse J. is the last survivor of his family, and is the son of Samuel Jefferson Coffey b. 1873 Grainger Co., TN. The death certificate lists Samuel COFFEE d. Sept. 3, 1947 age 74. It was signed by his son, Floyd COFFEY in Knox Co., Rt. 5 Knoxville, TN. Samuel's wife was America Saminthia Ritter. America had a sister Mary Jane Ritter. As a travel agent Pat can help you plan your trips. But she needs help with her Coffey family.

In March, BOYCE COFFEY said all he knew about his Coffeys was that his grandfather was Oliver Hill Coffey, b. 11 Dec 1851 in Jamestown, KY to James Coffey and Susan Bradshaw and that James and Susan had been married 29 May 1849 and had children Cassius Clay, Oliver Hill, Gideon, James, John, Alice, Fannie, Patriot, and Betty. We were able to write back the information furnished by Faye McQuilling (this issue p. 11)

WARREN DAVIS is interested in the Coffey and Bradshaw families of Russell Co., KY. Warren's mother is a Coffey and there is a branch of the family living in Saskatchewan. After arriving in Russell Co. in the early 1800's his Coffeys moved to Hamburg, Iowa and then into Canada. One group went to Coffeyville, KS. Warren traces to James L. Coffey and Susan Bradshaw. His grandfather is Albert Judson Coffey b. Russell Co., KY

MARIE I. COPELAND AMELL was b. in Orillia, Ontario in 1936. Her parents were James J. Copeland 1888-1952 and Irene Walsh 1894-1976. Irene was the daughter of Patrick Walsh 1859-1949 and Julia Coffey 1868-1935. Julia was the daughter of Patrick Coffey 1828-1893 and Honora O'Connor 1833-1904. Julia was the granddaughter of Timothy Coffey and Joanna Breen who were married in Parish of Glen Carr, Co Kerry, Ireland.

LOY COFFEY is the great great grandson of Col. Jesse Coffey of Lincoln Co., KY and a descendant of William and Osborn Coffey and Mary Nightingale.

CLAUDE POWERS is the great grandson of Elisha Bailey Poor and wife Louisa Coffee. Louisa was b. in Lisbon, NY in 1834 the daughter of Nathaniel Coffee. And that's about as far as Claude can go now.

DR. WANETA BAILEY divides her time between Florida and Spencer (Owen Co.) IN. She is descended from the Owen Co. Coffey family and is a clinical psychologist in Florida.

Our fifth convention has closed and again was a delight for those attending. It takes but a few minutes after opening formalities for all to break out their notebooks, photo albums, and the best of their genealogical treasure. I'm sure a newcomer to Coffee/Coffey genealogy is amazed at how much information is available. It usually isn't long after meeting until we're telling each other jokes on ourselves that our mothers and brothers may not have heard. Stories that will keep memories fresh for a year.

People in Nashville, IN included Elvin and Lillian Harrell, TN; Jeff and Kitti Coffey, TX; Roy and Lou Coffey, KS/FL; George and Ethelyn Coffey, KY; James and Edith Smith, KY; Ben (Sr.) and Juanita Coffey, KY; Thurman and Ruth Lanning, OR; Edwin, Phyllis, and Debbie Coffee VA; Virgil and Iva Coffee, NM; Jim and Bonnie Culley, MO; Robert and Dorothy Coffey, IL; Click and Sadie Coffey, AL; Cecil and Eva Coffey, AL; Bill and Virginia Coffey, PA; James Coffey, MI; Dr. Wanita Bailey IN/FL; Betty Coffey, NC; Richard Coffey, CA; Boyce and Juanita Coffey, WY. From Indiana Mr. and Mrs. Ben Coffey (Jr) and Bryan; Anne Konkle; Mr and Mrs Art Hadley with Art's mother and daughter; Mildred Coffey, Faye and David McQuilling; Chena and Howard Crider; Jim and Diane Farmer, Rob and Pat Christensen; Len and Donna Coffey.

Edwin Coffee gave CCC 10 pages of his latest work in the archives. It consists of these categories of data pertaining to Caffey, Coffee, Coffey, etc. individuals. 1. Early Texas Marriage Records for 14 counties (some as early as 1838, some as late as 1909). 2. Military Service Records 1784-1811. 3. Military Service Records Indian Wars (pre Civil War). 4. Military Service Records-War of 1812. These will be printed in CCC.

The selecting of the site for the 1989 convention was interesting and surprising. Proposals were made for Pomona, California - Spencer, Indiana - San Antonio, Texas - and Jefferson City, Missouri. And the winner is Jefferson City. Jim and Bonnie Culley will be hosts at the Holiday Inn there. As both Bonnie and Jim are employed by the state government in Jeff City they will have information and access to many helps for the genealogist. They feel they can speed the orientation process for the researcher with Missouri ties. The plans they have already firmed up sound great including the room rate of $39.00. Full details and schedules will be reported later, but we hope you will plan to come to this convention, very near the heart of America.
