Dear Cousins,

Guess What! We made it a whole year! It's been a great experience for me and I hope not too taxing for you. In March it was a desperation move so as not to lose our newsletter and you have been very patient with me. I sincerely thank you. I also want to apologize to all of those who we lost for a while. I knew that Cousin Len ran subscriptions from January thru December (4 issues) and assumed that everyone knew this also. Last March I didn't say "your subscription is due". When I realized that we had lost a number of longtime subscribers I created postcards and mailed them to all of the people who hadn't resubscribed in the last two years. We wish to welcome about 30 of our lost cousins back. It's great to have you again.

Those who have not already paid for the 1990 subscription, it is due. The first issue of 1990 will be printed in March. I guess we can judge how well we have done by how many renewals we receive. We also appreciate any Coffey material that we can print and any suggestions for making the newsletter better.

As several people have asked what my Coffey lineage is. I'd like to answer it here. I descend from the (1) Edward & Ann (Powell) Coffey line through (2) John & Jane (Graves) Coffey, (3) Benjamin & Polly (Hayes) Coffey, (4) George & Elizabeth (Coffey) Hayes, (5) Hamilton & Elvira (Register) Hayes. (6) William & Ida (Hayes) Willard, (7) Virgil & Lucille (Willard) Flanigan to ME. I was working on the Hayes line when I found the Coffey's. What a FIND!

MEET OUR NEW COUSINS

GRACE J. HARRY descends from Nebuzaraden Coffey 1757/1797. thru John D. Coffey 1821/45. Ananias Coffey 1846/97. James Thomas Coffey 1876/1942 and her father John Coffey 1909/1988. She offers to assist anyone needing help on Southern Indiana research.

CURRENTS IN THE STREAM

Kathryn Johneon is concentrating on the Hayes line at present. Kathryn continues, "all evidence (church records, census, 8, some misc. records) indicate that the father of Thomas Hayes Jr. (married Sarah Rucker) was Thomas Hayes, Sr. The name of his wife is still unknown. He died in 1829, Burke Co., N.C. at the home of his son, John Hayes who married Milla Medaris. Many Coffeys are related to John and Milla. Records and information collected indicate that George Hayes, who married Mary Judah Mills, Thomas Hayes, who married Sarah Rucker and John Hayes who married Milla Medaris are all brothers. They all lived in the Globe District of Burke Co., N.C. that later became Caldwell County. It would appear that Ransom Hayes is also a brother. It is believed, by several researchers, that Thomas Hayes, Sr. married a daughter of Colbert Blair hence the name "Colbert" all through the Hayes line. Court records show a will being probated in Burke Co. for Colbert Blair but the original will was evidently destroyed during the Civil War along with the will of Thomas Hayes, Sr.

Another researcher says that Thomas Hayes, Sr. was the son of George Hayes (died 1747, Intestate in Augusta Co., Va. now Rickbridge Co., VA) and a Sarah Dyer. After death of George Hayes in 1747, Sarah married a second, James Edmonson/Edminson and the whole family moved to Burke Co., N.C. After her marriage to Edminson, she had several other children, among them a William Edminston, who lived next door to Thomas Hayes, Sr. in Burke Co.. There are many Coffeys in the Edminston line."

Again quoting Kathryn, "I'm only guessing here but if I can ever find any proof, I think the Polly Hayes who married Old Benjamin Coffey is a daughter of Sarah Dyer and George Hayes (d. 1747). I do know he left several young children.

Kathryn Johnson has been busy recently as she says that she now had documentation that Peter Rucker, father of Colby Rucker, was married to Sarah Wisdom, daughter of John Wisdom and Ann Collins, and not to Sarah Cowherd as has been stated.

Bill Stampers has sent an obituary: Patricia Coffee, 43, of Prairie Grove died Aug. 6, 1989 at Fayetteville, AK. She was born Nov. 18, 1945, in Dewsbury, England, the daughter of Arthur & Vera Croft Blackburn. Survivors include her husband, Jim Coffee; one son. Logan Coffee: one daughter, Kerri Coffee, Little Rock.

Barbara Jones Detrick has submitted an interesting set of documents that I wish we could print in its entirety. She has substantial proof that the wife of Cleveland Coffee was Elizabeth FARMER and not Harmon as previously assumed. If one had only the marriage record. It could possibly be read as Harmon but the County Clerk's record book of Wayne Co. KY., is definitely "Coffey Cleveland 8. Elizabeth Farmer 7 Aug". Her son William Madison Coffee's death certificate has DON SHOOK is looking for the his Coffey ancestors. His grandmother was Mary Jane Coffey who married Charles Red and their daughter was Sophlr Red Collins. It seems that Mary Jane Coffey Red had a brother William Coffey who had son's Jesse and Charles and another brother Henry who had a son James. They lived ln Perry Co. MO. Don's address is Rt. 2, Box 169, Russellville, MO 65109. I see Don most days at work. What a surprise when he said he had Coffey lineage. I hope we can find his ancestors.

THE MAILBOX

Thelma Mathls has good news to share with us. She has Just discovered that William Coffee of Bedford Co. TN. was likely the father of her ancestor James Coffee (Bedford Co.. TN). She thinks that he was born ln N. Carolina or perhaps Virginia. Thelma has eye problems which we hope let her finish her research before surgery.

Cherry Jones wrote that she and Kenneth Coffee, who is ln Tunisia, is working on the same line. She has Information to share with him. I understand mail to Tunisia is not too dependable, so lets hope his mail gets through this time.

I was so glad to hear from Marvin Coffey. I have recommended his book "James B. Coffey, Vol.11 Ancestors" to several people. I was pleased to hear that he has a few copies left and is still selling them at the same price of $22.50 which includes postage.

Daraleen Wade wishes to inform anyone planning to Join the Daughters of the American Revolution using the line of Joel Coffey/Martha Sealey, that the line has been closed. She requested this closure when she learned that they were still sending out papers on the line which contain a number of errors. This particular file has caused lots of confusion to Coffey researchers over the years and hopefully this move will spare them ln the future some of the frustration that earlier researchers experienced. If you need help with this line I'm sure Darleen will help you with the correct information.

Bernle Coffey wrote that he had attended a seminar at the National Archives in October this year. It was headed by Bill Linder of Arlington, VA. During the seminar, the Archives pulled from their files 28 original pages that Bernle's Great-grandmother had submitted to receive a widows pension. It covered the years 1864 to 1903 when she passed away. His Great-grandfather joined the Union Army ln Kingston, N.Y. ln 1863. He had six children and the youngest was only 8 months old at that time. He was killed ln action ln the 2nd. Battle of Bull Run after serving only nine months with the Union Army. At the time of Mary Smith Coffee's death ln 1903, she was receiving a pension of $12.00 a month. She could not read or write. The "X" that she substituted for her signature was always verified by two signatures that swore that she was aware of WHAT, WHERE, and WHY. Bernie says "A great SEMINAR."

The following obituary was extracted from the ALBANY LEDGER, a newspaper printed in Albany, MO. The paper was dated Aug 19, 1904, page 2 column 3. It was sent in by Margaret Wooderson, a friend who is working on the Albany MO. history.

OBITUARY

Lawson Coffey, Sr., was born in Owen county, Indiana, August 15, 1820, and grew up to be a quiet, orderly young man. He was highly esteemed by all, spent much of his time in the employ of his brother-in-law, David Allen, in buying and selling stock. In his business transactions he was regarded as trustworthy, honest, and reliable. He was baptized and united with the Baptist church at Bethel, Owen county, Indiana(sic), about 60 years ago, and always took delight in the old songs that were then sung by many sweet, familiar voices now hushed in death.

In 1860 he was united in marriage with Polly Adoline Litton. Two boys were the result of this union, one of whom is still living. His first wife died in 1857 and he was united in marriage with Eliza Ann Campbell, on the 15th day of August, 1858. Eight children were the result of this union, 5 boys and 3 girls, 6 of whom are now living - 4 boys and 2 girls.

He moved from Indiana to the village of Alanthus, Mo, in Gentry county, one of the most beautiful garden spots in the world, in 1856. He united with the Christian church in Alanthus, Mo, about 30 years ago and lived a quiet and peaceable life of faith and hope, and was regarded by all as a faithful brother and friend whose voice was always heard on the side of right. No one loved quiet and order better than he. In his home he struggled to rule in love, and was always happy in the joy and happiness of loved ones there.

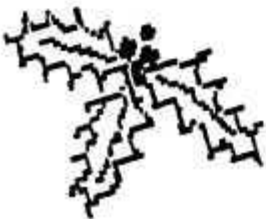

His faithful companion will miss him most of all, for she has stood by him and he has been her constant care during the long years he has been a patient sufferer.

He came to the end of life's journey on Sunday at 12:30 a.m.. August 7, 1904. The funeral took place at the Baptist church, conducted by Elder J. H. Coffey, August 9, at 10:00 a.m.. after which all that was mortal of Lawson Coffey, Sr.. was laid to rest in the Jennings cemetery to await the resurrection morning.

Elder J. H. Coffey

Margaret also reported that she read the ALBANY LEDGER, Jan. 3, 1902 as follows: "We learn that O. N. Coffey, an old citizen who has lived northeast of Alanthus for many years died Tuesday morning of pneumonia fever, after a short illness."

The ALBANY LEDGER was established in 1868.
