Mabel Buckley has rejoined us. We're glad that she has time for genealogy again. She descends from Edmund Coffey.

Diane Kaempf found out about us from Anna Cassell and Prodigy. She is searching for her great grandmother, Margaret Coffey who married Issac Beacern. They were from Long Island, NY. This is all Diane knows at this point. Her address is in the new cousins list.

MAIL BOX

SHARRS CELEBRATE 50th ANNIVERSARY

Herschel & Noreva Sharr were married 7 Oct. 1942 in Republic, Missouri, in the Methodist Parsonage by Rev. Robert Smith. The Sharrs have four sons: Herschel, Jr, James, Gary, and Dale who surprised them with a party for their anniversary. Herschel was born 28 Jan. 1918 in Pickering, MO and Noreva was born in July "on old Highway 66" in Elwood, MO. Herschel & Noreva now live in Lucerne Valley, CA.

CCC wishes them many more happy anniversaries.

Gene W. Tomlin tells us that he found his family in John Taylors work in the last issue of CCC. He found his great grandmother Julia Coffey, on his father's side and as he says "a great deal more". The Abraham Clement that Rebecca Hamilton Coffey married after the death of Nelson Coffey was his great great grandfather on his mother's side. Now he has Coffeys on both sides. We again thank John Taylor for his vast work on the Coffeys of Coffeytown.

We sadly have to say good by to Andre' Cuffez of Oosttende, Belgium. He writes that he has given up the research on the Coffeys. Andre' says "Not because it is not interesting to me anymore, but because I have no time to do it." Andre' has become interested in egyptology which is now taking up all of his time. He says that it is difficult to do research from abroad and he feels that there are a lot of good researchers working on the Coffey family now. We will definitely miss him. He has given us some interesting things to work on in the past. We hope he will think of us once in a while. We shall definitely miss his interesting letters.

R. Kay Coffey of Ontario, Canada asks if we have ever considered putting a couple of lines in CCC asking for suggestions to increase membership, or more importantly: ask for more input, re. searches for early COFFEES/COFFEYS. Do any members have contacts in Ireland for help with searches - or addresses one could write?

R. Kay's address is RR3, Brighton, Ontario, Canada KOK 1H0. (Input is always appreciated. Without member input, CCC wouldn't exist. All of the material in CCC is given by one of CCC members. Our thanks and much love. YE-ED)

Connie Platt says that she enjoys reading the newsletter but is waiting for Tim Peterman to make some new breakthrough. His ancestor and Connie's are brothers, both sons of Eli and Mary(Polly) Coffey. Connie says that she wonders how many members do descend from Eli, also that I occasionally refer people from the Eli line to her. ( I usually give them Connie & Tim's names when info is wanted for the Eli line.) Connie says that she sends them on to Tim Peterman, "A GOOD RESEARCHER". (We often get asked if Tim Peterman has any new work! His writings were some of our most interesting subjects.)

David W. Coffey says that he had a letter from Kenneth Vance Graves of the Graves Family Association, 261 South Street, Wrentham, MA 02093. Mr. Graves is interested in hearing from descendants of John and Jane Graves Coffey. According to their records, this Jane Graves is descended from Capt. Thomas Graves of VA to Viz:

1. Capt. Thomas Graves
2. Francis Graves
3. John Graves m. Johanna _____
4. Jane Graves m. John Coffey.

This is a different lineage than proposed by Marvin D. Coffey in his book, "JAMES B. COFFEY, VOL II; ANCESTORS".

Kenneth V. Graves is planning a book on the descendants of Capt. Thomas Graves of VA so anyone interested in this family should contact him to exchange information.

For anyone who is interested the GRAVES FAMILY NEWSLETTER is published every other month and is mailed to all members of the Graves Family Association. Membership for 1993 is $20. The Graves Family Association, 261 South Street, Wrentham, MA. 02093.

Jack Coffee says that he wants to expand a little on Jeff Coffey's idea of joining Prodigy. He proposes GENIE, a similar service, be investigated. It has a large and active membership in the genealogy "roundtable" discussions and cost is a flat $4.95 per month. Private mail is not limited and there are many files available for downloading. Jack says that there is a "free" genealogy service provided by thousand of computer owners, like himself, around the US and the world. It is the NGC, or National Genealogical Conference and is probably available at a privately run bulletin board system nearby every Coffey Cousin. There are others but NGC is the largest and is distributed nationally, and in Europe, South Africa and Australia. Jack says that if you would like to check it out you can call his BBS at (504) 293-9608. Log on with the name "Just Looking" (no quotes) and password "friend" (again no quotes). Thanks Jack. We'll try it.

Kathryn Johnson writes that they had their family home for Christmas. Kathryn has done lots of work on the Rucker, Hayes and Payne family. We always enjoy seeing what she has new. Her work would be interesting to publish sometime if Kathryn is interested.

DEAD END ROADS

James Coffey Jr. from Atlanta writes that he received a letter from Sloatsburg, N.Y. that states "the old Coffey/Peckham Cemetery in Central Valley will soon be in the middle of Woodbury Common's new parking lot." The author Mrs. M. Smeltzer Stevenot, is working on a history of the land and families buried there. She refers to deeds in the early 1800s by John Coffey, Sr. and John Coffey, Jr. John's wife may have been a quaker. James further states that John Coffey was in Monroe, Orange Co., NY in 1806-07 and a John Coffey was in the town of Highlands, Orange Co., NY in 1864. A Michal Coffey (born Ireland abt 1822) was in Wawarsing, Ulster Co., NY in 1855. James hopes some our Coffey researchers can help Mrs. M. Smeltzer Stevenot. Her address is 150 Johnstontown Road, Sloatsdburg, NY 10974.

Shari Burghart says that she is grasping at straws, but can anyone tell her for whom Coffee County, TN was named? It came into being in 1836. She is searching for parents for Priscilla Coffee who married Nathan Quarles/Qualls. The only other information is that her husband was born in VA. about 1790 and shows up in Meigs Co., TN in the 1850 census. Their son is in Jefferson Co., TN. Can anyone help Shari? You will have to forward your answer to her through me as she is on Prodigy. Her number is VDSX94A.

Jack Coffee needs help with John F. Coffee whowas in the 1830 Henderson Co., TN census. It shows John with 3 Males, 5-10 years old in his household. Jack's Lilburn Coffee was born in 1821 and would fit in that age group for that census. Does anyone of the cousins have anything on this John F. Coffee that might help Jack? His address is 10026 Hackberry Dr., Baton Rouge, LA 70809-2910.

Danny K. Coffey is looking for parents for his great great grandfather. He sent the following Russell Co. KY census:

1870 census, Russell Co. KY, (Danny's great great grandfather

Coffey, Jackson age 55

Sarah 55

Ida F. F/ 1

If anyone can help Danny, his address is P.O. Box 11, Jamestown, KY 42629.

Joseph Newbrough Jr. 708 Beltz Ave. Jefferson, LA 70121 is looking for information on the family of his great grandmother Elmiria/Almira Coffee/y who married Joseph Newbrough abt 1849 possibly in IN. She was the dau. of Oliver Coffee/y. Can you help Joseph?

HELP WANTED

Carol Coffee, Ph.D is asking for help from anyone who has material on the PETER COFFEE line as he is gathering material for a book on this family. He would like to hear from anyone who has not as yet responded to his call to assist. Dr. Coffee's address is 2028 Bingle Road. Houston, TX 77055. He plans to research in and visit the states of Georgia, Missouri, Tennessee, Alabama, Virginia and California this summer. We will be glad to do anything in our power to help Dr. Coffee in his endeavor as a good book on the Peter Coffee line would be a big help to researchers on this line. Dr. Coffee promises to acknowledge those who help in the published work.

Wanted - I would like to purchase a copy of Andre' Cuffez's book of COFFEY GENEALOGY. His book is one of the few that I don't have for my Coffee/y library.

Marvin D. Coffey is planning to reprint his book, James B. Coffey, Vol. II: Ancestors, with corrections and addendum. This would include all descendants of Edward and Ann (Powell) Coffey. If you have material to add or are interested in purchasing a copy, write Marvin at 1018 Clay St., Ashland, OR 97520.

CURRENTS IN THE STREAM

NOREVA J. SHARR says that she wants to thank John Taylor for the info in the last CCC. It helped her fill in some blank spaces of info that Fred Coffey had sent on cemeteries in Stuarts Draft and information on the Jordan Coffey family. Noreva has an Archive Record from Mrs. Lillian H. Ferguson of Salt Lake City, UT, that gives the father of Nelson Coffey b. abt 1808 that m. Rebecca Hamilton, as Schuyler Coffey. This Schuyler is too old to be the son of Jordan Coffey, but he could possibly be a brother.

BRENDA CAROLE JOHNSON ANDREWS says that she has found her lineage. She descends from 1) Monnie Rae Coffee of Johnson Ark. 2) Columbus Washington Coffee of Ark./ Ga. 3) Sterling Coffee and 4) Elijah Coffey. We're glad Brenda has found her line and hope that she will send us an expanded lineage sometime in the future.

CHARLES E. MORELAND writes in regard to an earlier query as follows: The Hiram Coffey born to Reuben Jr. and Naomi (Hayes) Coffey was born in NC in 1802 and went with his parents to Carter County, Tennessee about 1803. This is the Reuben who bought land there which was recorded 5th Dec. 1804. In about 1821 the family moved to Monroe Co., Indiana where Hiram married Charlotte Stansbury and had children named Tillman, Tabitha, Grandville, Deniza, Elisha and maybe more. The Joseph Coffey who witnessed the above mentioned deed in Carter County, Tennessee could very well be the brother of Reuben, Jr. This Joseph is listed on page 50 of Marvin Coffey's "JAMES B. COFFEY, VOL II: ANCESTORS". The name of his wife is not mentioned but there are 9 children listed, none of which are named Hiram. His 7th child was named Matilda. Charles states that he does not know if there were any other Coffeys, other than Reuben Jr. and Joseph who were in Carter County, TN. at that time. Reuben, who married Sally is the parent of Reuben Jr. They never left North Carolina, to Charles knowledge.

I, Bonnie Culley, had a new cousin ask what my lineage was. I guess I just assumed that everyone knew or that I made enough noise that everyone had guessed by now. I do descend from Edward Coffey and wife Ann Powell through their son John Coffey and wife Jane Graves. My next generations are their son Benjamin Coffey and wife Polly Hayes, through their son John who married Elizabeth Rucker. They had a daughter Elizabeth who married Nathan Whitsett first, and George Hayes (her first cousin) second. Elizabeth is my great great grandmother. From here on my line is Hayes, Willard, Flanigan and Culley. For dates and places, see Marvin Coffey's book James B. Coffey, Vol. II: Ancestors.

DIVISION OF CORRECTIONS

Reams Goodloe writes that we printed an error in CCC #49, page 8. Jesse was married in 1819 according to the Family Bible now in the possession of Barbara Coffee Goodloe Johnson of Nashville, TN. We erroneously listed Jesse as born in 1819. Please make the correction to your issue 49.

VIRGIL COFFEE'S FILES

Virgil Coffee of McIntosh, NM is organizing his files and has sent us a lot of pertinent information. Virgil has some very interesting theories as follows:

In "THE COFFEYS OF WAYNE COUNTY" on pages 51 through 58 there is a dissertation relative to Reuben and the lack of his wife's name. On page 57 it conjectures Millie Morris or Naomi Hayes. Why not both? The record I (Virgil) found says that Reuben married Naomi Hays in Burke Co. NC on 7 Feb. 1797. Now, if we assume that Reuben indulged in no extracurricular activities, then he had a wife before Naomi as there were five children before Naomi and five afterwards. Now that we know he married Naomi it explains how one of their girls is named Naomi, married Summers Wright. Virgil has not found a marriage record for Reuben and Millie but he says he will keep looking. So far he has found eleven Reubens of various spellings.

Virgil extracted the following from "A HISTORY OF WATAUGA CO. NC". Austin Coffey was a brother to McCasleb Coffey. (there was no Austin reported in the book THOMAS COFFEY AND HIS DESCENDANTS). Austin was a Union sympathizer, while McCaleb, William and Reubin were Confederates. Austin was murdered by the men of Capt. James Marlowes' company. The murder was reported by Austin's son J. Fillmore Coffey. Austin had been reported to have married a Blalock. A Keith Blalock had William shot by a man named Perkins in 1865. A little cerebration (thought) says that McCaleb, William and Reubin were sons of Thomas Coffey and Sally Fields. Austin was the grandson of Thomas Coffey and Elizabeth Smith, by William and Polly Coffey.

N.Y. NATURALIZATION , 1795 - 1799

COFFEY, WILLIAM, hairdresser --8, Dec. 1796

Brenda Andrews extracted this from an old NATIONAL GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY QUARTERLY.

It states: Two manuscript volumes in the custody of the County Clerk of New York (containing records of the Courts of Nisi Prius in 1784 and 1796 and of Circuit Courts, 1786-1799) yield the following hitherto unpublished names, here alphabetized, of persons granted citizenship in New York City from 10 April 1795 through 13 April 1799.

COFFEY GENERAL STORE

Kathryn Johnson extracted the following article from the SUN JOURNAL - NEW BERN, NC. It is dated 1 Dec. 1991.

FAMILY KEEPS GENERAL STORE TRADITION ALIVE DURING MOUNTAIN HUNTING SEASON

If you needed to talk news, gossip or politics, the place to head was Coffey's General Store. Store owner Archie Coffey, who doubled as the Edgemont postmaster, would watch over the regulars holding court around the wood stove. In the early 1900s, Edgemont a tiny wooded community surrounded by the Pisgah National Forest, was a place to be.

Then the changes started. The great flood of 1940 wiped out homes and a mill in near by Mortimer, putting 600 workers out of jobs. Attracted by steady jobs in cities such as Lenoir, small farmers and lumber workers moved away.

Archie Coffey died in 1986. Recently the old Edgemont Hotel, a decaying 1905 landmark with wraparound porch, fireplaces and 24 rooms, burned to the ground. And Edgemont, population 7, mourned another lost piece of its heritage.

"I imagine that hotel was full most of the time," said Bonnie Coffey Rash, who has operated Coffey's General Store since her brother died. "Back in early 1900s, there were the Mortimer and Ritter lumber companies. They cut timber all over this area," Rash said. "And Edgemont was sort of an up-and-coming community.

"A train that came out of (Chester) South Carolina, would go up to Lenoir, then to Edgemont. During that time, the hotel was there, and people who worked on the train would turn around the next day and take them back." After the flood, caused by a coastal hurricane moving inland, the hotel closed to paying guest. In recent years it was leased to a horseback riding club.

Most full-time residents moved away. Now about 65 people have shelters ranging from hunting shacks to mobile homes and cottages they use as vacation spots. These days, even native Rash doesn't live or work in the community full-time. She opens the store only Fridays and Saturdays during hunting season, "just to keep the family tradition alive," then goes home to Crossnore in neighboring Avery County.

"If only my brother were alive," She says. "He knew even/thing." Archie's death was itself the end of an era. For 115 years, Coffeys had run the post office in Edgemont. At their general store, which Rash's father, Gus Coffey, took over in the early 1900s, the family sold everything from food to rat poison, to hunting and fishing licenses.

"It was really rugged-looking when I came here at age 17," said Faye Coffey, who married Rash's brother Blaine 45 years ago.

"All these people were dipping snuff - I just could not get used to it. We stayed here for about a year, and I said, That's enough." Blaine Rash obliged, and the couple moved back to her home town of San Antonio, Texas. Still, they came back every summer and eventually built a vacation cabin in Edgemont. Blaine Rash died the day after Christmas, so now the cottage is a little empty for her. She lives in San Antonio, but still comes back to Edgemont with her daughter and her family, who live in Gastonia.

At Faye Coffey's house in Edgemont, thieves broke in one night and stole everything from mattress to the microwave. And the hotel - a building everyone hoped would someday come back to life - is gone for good. Still, Faye Coffey smiles wistfully about another Edgemont. "I remember Blaine used to go sit down on the big rock (near the hotel) and eat corn bread," she said. "And my kids used to hate to leave. It was the joy of the summertime, coming to Uncle Archie's store."

For the Hartleys, coming to Edgemont more than 20 years ago was a way to get away. Lenoir natives, they opted for the country mountain life. "It's very pleasant," said Edith

Hartley, 65, who lives with her husband, Ben, and their 23 year old son, Sam. "It's a peaceful QUIET place."

To Bonnie Rash, the fire was a reminder of a simpler time when many roads seemed to end at her family's store in Edgemont. "If only my brother had a tape recorder" she said. "There would be four or five of them, sitting around the big potbellied stove. Oh, the talks they's have,,," "It could be turned into a book - that would be a sight on Earth —that group."

John Taylor has generously given us this copy of his cronology of VA to publish. I was impressed when I read it. I immediately called John and ask if we could use it. He not only gave permission but sent the following compressed version so it did not have to be typed.

COFFEY CHRONOLOGY . VIRGINIA

( As found in the public records and secondary sources of information in genealogical publications in the Virginia State Archives in Richmond, Virginia)

- 1637 John Coffee comes to Virginia, perhaps as crewmember, maybe returning immediately. (Some believe Edward Coffee's father was John Coffee, and this may be him, apparently no evidence to support this belief.)
- 1653 Abr Cofface (sic), perhaps Abraham Coffee, came to Virginia.
- 1679, 1 MAY Peter Coffey apprenticed to John Snow in Jamaica, for four years.
- ESSEX CO. FORMED FROM RAPPAHANOCK CO. : 1692
- 1700 Edward Coffey marries Anne Powell, daughter of Thomas Powell in Essex County.
- 1706, 4 APR Edward Coffey granted "his freedom, corn, and clothes" from Benjamin Mosely, Essex Co.
- 1707, 10 OCT By this time Edward Coffey owned land from Augustine Smith, in Essex County.
- 1714, 11 NOV Edward Coffee and wife Ann sell land to John Barbee, land he bought from Augustine Smith; Occupatia Creek, 118 acres for 5000 pounds of "lawful, sweet scented tobacco".
- 1716, 14 FEB Edward Coffee "writes" will described below.
- 1716, 18 July Edward Coffey and John Coffey, sons of Edward, buy 200 acres from John Mosely, Essex County; Mosely's Quarters, for 8000 # tobacco.
- 1716, 20 NOV Edward Coffey wills to John, Edward, Marther, Ann, Annister, Elizabeth, and his wife Ann: land, cows, etc. The bond listed Thomas Graves as one of those involved in the bonding of wife Ann as Administratrix. Land to sons if 16 and mother dead, or 18 if mother living. No mention of which one had to be 16/18, may have been twins. Date is evidently date of filing the will.
- 1716, 4 DEC Apparent date of actual death of Edward Coffee (records not clear to me).
- 1717, 12 JUNE Lancaster County - Inventory of estate of Hugh Coffey.
- 1725 John Coffey M Jane Graves, had James Coffey/Essex Co, Baptist preacher (1729)
- 1726, 21 JUNE Edward Coffee's land mentioned in land sale, Colonial Gloucester Co. Deed Book, land in Essex County.

GOOCHLAND COUNTY FORMED. 1731

- 1731 Peter Coffee shipped to Potomack, MD prison for 14 year sentence in Colonies.

ALBEMARLE COUNTY FORMED from Goochland 1744

- 1744 Ann Duling, Essex Co wills prop to Annister Coffey and James Coffey her grandson.
- 1746, SEPT Chas Coffrey sold land to Jno Grills, possibly 167 acres, in Albemarle County. Also, 1746-1748: John Coffey then Peter Coffey hited Joshua Fry to survey land in Albemarle County. Not clear from this abstract of court record as to what land was surveyed.
- 1747 Benjamin Coffey born in Spotsylvania County, went to North Carolina and then to Tenn (Revolutionary War). John Coffey witnessed land sale in Gloucester County; Garnett - Gamete
- 1748 Peter Coffey buys 220 Acres, Vaughan's Creek, Prince Edward County.
