PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Cousins,

Those who were not there missed a really good reunion. Jack and Nelda put together another great one. The accommodations were relaxing, compact and just about all you could ask for. We learned more about the South and the Civil War than some of us knew. Although we saw some Confederate money I don't think I heard anybody suggesting we should save it because the South will rise again. Didn't get to have breakfast in bed, but that was never one of the requirements for hosting a reunion.

This was one of our larger turnouts - 73. Calgary was our largest with 81. Had to go out of the country to get the biggest attendance! And our Canadian hosts, Donna and J. R. McDonald were with us again this year. I don't think Donna has missed one since Baltimore (the year she agreed to have us in Calgary the next year).GREAT!!

NOW - mark your calendars for April 26-28, 2002. We go to BIG D! Jo Langwell has been doing some great planning for us and you sure don't want to miss this one. We will be staying in the suburb of Dallas - Addison. It is more convenient to the Dallas-Fort Worth International airport. She has a wonderful sightseeing trip planned for Friday. AND, a BIG surprise program for us on Saturday morning. THE BANQUET - Saturday might put on your best WESTERN ATTIRE and be ready to enjoy SOUTH FORK! Yep, the South Fork of J. R. Ewing fame. You'll have to check your fire arms at the door. We will get a tour of South Fork as well as have a Dallas style bar-b-q.

Then the challenge will be for me to try to keep you awake through our annual business meeting. Be sure and wear your boots - it may get a bit deep. Better check and see if you are eligible, by Texas standards, to tuck one pant leg in a boot, both boots -or no tuck. Gotta be careful about those things in cow country, you might be mistaken for something you are not.

DALLAS - APRIL 26-28, 2002.

NEW JERSEY - 2003 - Hosted by Marguerite Yates. See you'll at our 2002 meeting.

Hope you have a good summer and can keep cool.

Your Cousin,
Jeff

EDITOR'S LETTER

Dear Cousins,

The only thing that could have made the Coffee/y Convention better would be having all our cousins be able to attend. I realize this is impossible and do enjoy meeting the ones who can attend. Jack and Nelda Coffee did an excellent job of hosting a relaxed and enjoyable gathering. We can't thank them enough for their good work. Conventions are held in different locations each year, hoping to be accessible to everyone at some place. We plan to meet in Dallas, Texas in April 2002.

I also need to thank Al Carhart, Barbara Swett, and Millie Coffey who have sent photos of the convention to use in the newsletter. It was hard to choose which would work best. All of them were better than the ones I took. Thanks all.

I hope you will make sure to respond to the published queries when you have information on the line in question. I love to brag to the researchers of other lines about the generosity of our Coffee/y Cousins. I'm proud of the help given to the new cousins and queries by our group. Many of our queries are from the computer - email. If you are not a computer person, write your letter and send it to me. I will see that it gets to the person placing the query. This might be a new researcher for your family.

Thanks and keep up the good work.

Bonnie

P.S. I received a letter today from the Texas Coffee - Coffey Reunion Assn. It's called: THE BIG TEXAS STEAK RANCH REUNION, this year. It will be held Sat. Aug. 4, 2001 in Amarillo, TX. They are staying in the Big Texas Steakhouse Motel. There is entertainment in the evening and plenty of time to mingle. If you are interested in learning more about this meeting, write to Paul Young, 16625 Hwy 16 South, San Antonio, TX 78264 or call 210-624-2115. They have a web site at <http://www.satx.net/people/psy/btsrr01.htm>. Sounds like fun. Hope I can make it.

COFFEY COUSINS CONVENTION VICKSBURG, MISSISSIPPI -April, 2001

The Vicksburg convention, on a scale of 1 to 10, would definitely rate a 10. Jack and Nelda did a great job as hosts and hostess. Their selection of a locally owned hotel was a real winner. The owners and employees were extremely hospitable. We had a full breakfast bar each morning and two drinks at happy hour by the pool along with music. It was a good time to visit and get acquainted.

The tour of Vicksburg and the battlefield was exciting and we even learned how to actually fire the old cannons. Lunch at the Balfour House was delicious. (We were all asking for the chicken receipt.) Our hostess was in period costume and we had a good tour of the house and it's history.

There were 73 at the banquet and there were about 15 who had never been to the convention before. My husband and I are the only ones to attend all conventions, with Jeff Coffey and Virgil Coffee having only missed one meeting. Bobbie Edwards spoke on the work done at the National Military Park by the Civilian Conservation Corps. or CCC. She was well versed on the history of the battlefield.

Jeff Coffey called the business meeting to order. (He forgot his chellelah!) sp? Minutes of the last meeting were read by Gail Bachman. Officers were retained for another year, Jeff Coffey as president and Gail Bachman as secretary. Jo Langwell presented her plans for the 2002 convention to be held in Dallas, TX. (We may all need cowboy boots!) We're all excited and ready for the next one. Jo has some great ideas for us. Marguerite Jobes has offered to host the 2003 convention in the New Jersey area. We will have more on these conventions in later issues of CCC.

There were a large number of door prizes. Nelda managed the drawing for 2 afghans from Marguerite and me, 6 numbered flag prints from Cecile Purcell, and 2 cook books from Annie Coffee. There were others that I do not know where they came from. We sell chances on these items to raise funds to finance the next convention. The donation of these prizes is always appreciated.

The sign-up sheet was not signed by all, so this may be missing a couple of people, but the ones Jack had on his registration sheet were: Al and Sue Carhart, Charles and Pamela Webb, Jim and Bonnie Culley, Bennie and Bob Loftin, Jeff and Glenna Coffey, Virgil Coffee, Dale and Nola Coffee, Donna and James R. McDonald, Millie Coffey, Jim and Lori Okel, Ila Coffey Merriman, Jim and Marguerite Coffey, Chris Coffey, Jo Langwell, Becky Riefler, Jack and Nelda Coffee, Jack and Cecile Purcell, Marguerite Yates Jobes, Margy Marcuson, Lynne Castellano, Dick and Annie Coffee, Ellen Mohr, Mary Ann Hiesiger, Bill and Gail Bachman, J. * Teresa Coffey Bivens writes that she is hoping that you can help her. She is trying to find info on Archie and Nancy Adeline (Norwood) Coffey. Archie is her gggrandfather. (Archie could be short for Archelaus [ED].) Their children known to Teresa are:
 1. Robe Patterson, b. 25 Jul 1867, d. 20 Oct 1938 and m. Agnes Elizabeth Seagle b. 3 Apr 1877, d. 28 May ?
 2. Mattie, m. John W. Ingram 18 Jul 1895 Clay Co, NC

 Teresa checked the index on the Coffey web and Nancy Adeline wasn't listed. There was some Norwoods there but none that she was familiar with. She has checked the 1900 McMinn Co. TN.

census with no luck and doesn't really know how she'll be able to check the census in N.C. Teresa asks, "Do you know if they have census listed on the Internet?" She checked the web site for some of the counties in N.C. but they didn't have the census on line. She did find out that some think that Archie's first name was Joseph but doesn't know for sure. The only other thing she knows about Nancy Adeline Norwood Coffey is that she was born in 1849 and her parents are Thomas Franklin Norwood 1813 - 1882 and Elizabeth Ann Ward 1817-1883. The Norwood families only tells her that Nancy Adeline married a Coffey. If you recognize any of these names, please contact Teresa at Lilsistb@aol.com or write to me and I will pass the info on. DIVISION OF CORRECTIONS

* I have listed Lu M. Whitworth as Lee in my address listing. I think I need my glasses checked. Please make the correction to your last newsletter.

* Reams Goodloe is a good researcher and helps to keep us straight He writes, "Just trying to set the record straight. Re: CCC # 82 page 9. The sentence referring to Holland Coffee "He is however a descendant of Peter Coffee Sr." is not correct. I know from my personal and family research on my great uncle Holland Coffee that he was a son of Ambrose and descendant of Edward Coffey through John and James. And he only had 12 siblings, not 15 as the next sentence says. page 14 The Virginia marriage date, page 14 for Abner Coffee and Christiana Kelly was 1791 not 1891. Abner died in 1838. See CCC 61-5, 57-3, 50-13,14 and 12-6. page 16 Just a raised eyebrow, no proof. There is a statement that Eli Coffey's mother was a native of New Jersey. His mother was Elizabeth Cleveland and most accounts have her born Virginia. I'm sure there's more but to paraphrase Thomas Jefferson, eternal vigilance is the price of accuracy. Please make these corrections.

* Nancy & Larry Williams send the following research information. Lloyd Bockstruck is supervisor of the genealogy section of the Dallas Public Library. He has a column in the Dallas Morning News each Saturday. (His email is texasliving@dallasnews.com) On February 24 his article was titled SEMINAR TO TRACE SCOTS-IRISH MIGRATION.

"The seminar was held March 10 at the East Dallas Christian Church, 629 North Peak for the Dallas County Genealogical Society. William Dollarhide was the guest lecturer. Probably best known for his book THE MAP GUIDE TO THE U.S. FEDERAL CENSUSES, 1790-1920, Mr. Dollarhide will examine the cultural and historical factors that caused two-thirds of the Scots in Ireland to immigrate to North America in the 18th century." Nancy says, "It's not unthinkable that some of our Irish relatives married some of those Scots but I suppose that is the needle in the haystack. The part that really intrigues me is his discussion of the migration routes."

Quoted again from Dollarhide, "Arriving in the middle colonies of Delaware and Pennsylvania, they made their way via the Valley of Virginia into the piedmont of the Carolinas and Virginia. After the Revolutionary War, they swarmed into Kentucky and Tennessee and into the lower south before reaching Texas. He will also discuss the factors that lured them to America and into the Appalachia."

What Nancy & Larry are really interested in is the migration routes within the United States along the roads built during the War of 1812. The Old Federal Road, McLeary's Road, the Natchez Trace and other migration routes that made travel to Texas possible.

In the same article, Brockstruck also tells about a publication by Larry Pursley assembling several thousand South Carolina marriages in a book, 7500 MARRIAGES FROM NINETY-SIX AND ABBEVILLE DISTRICT, S.C. 1774-1890. Brockstruck says the book is essential source for South Carolina genealogy, which as strong roots to Scots-Irish settlers. *Linda Roberts sent the following info about a Caffey family as we often get queries about the Caffeys. I thought it might be a good idea to include this.

CAFFEY FOREFATHERS

The Caffey family has been traced back to Ulster, Ireland, where John Caffey was born about 1690. He was a linen merchant His son Michael came to America (Dorchester County, Maryland) about 1740. He married Mary Hooper, who was from a prominent family of the area. Their son John married Mary Buchanan--a kinswoman of James Buchanan, who later became the 15 th president of the United States.

John Caffey served in the Revolutionary War. He took part in several battles including the Battle of Eutaw Springs in South Carolina on September 8, 1781. After the war ended, he moved to Guilford County, North Carolina. In 1817 he moved to the area around Montgomery, Alabama. He passed away on August 19, 1826, at his plantation near Montgomery. He was buried in the old family burying ground on the Woodley road near the city of Montgomery.

Linda says, there is a lot more about the family. If you know of anyone researching this family, she would be glad to do a lookup in this book.

PERKIN' ALONG WITH THE COFFEES

by Julie Fauset

The following account is the result of many years of research by Willard Duncan and his daughter Julie. Matilda Coffee Fauset. Matilda was my dad's great-grand mother, and this is a record of her family.

Some have speculated that when the 1850 census records Hiram Coffee's age as 50, it does not take into account any birthday during that year. Willard feels that if he was born in 1801, than perhaps he could be the son of a Macajah Coffee, who is listed in the 1820 Indiana census in the over 45 column without children. Thus far this 1850 census has all the documented information we have about Hiram's date and place of birth.

For this account we begin with Hiram's marriage record of 1819 in Wayne County, Indiana. A license was issued on 16 Sept 1819 to a Hiram and Betsey Huffman. The following year in the 1820 Wayne County census, Hiram and his wife are found with a female child under 10. Records will later prove this to be Matilda.

According to T.B. Helm's History of Hamilton County, Indiana, 1880, Hiram was one of the first pioneers on the banks of Falls Creek. Here in 1821, he carved out of the wilderness, a place to build a home for his soon to be growing family. On this land he would farm and raise 7 children: Matilda-1820, James S-1823, Nancy Lucinda-1826, George Washington-1827, Eli-1831, Hiram-1834, Robert Thompson-1839.

But in 1839 it seems Hiram is feeling the call to go west. He sells his property and heads for Lewis County, MO, where he can be found in the 1840 Missouri census. It is in Missouri that his two daughters marry. Matilda to James Henry Fauset in 1841, and Lucinda to William Allensworth in 1845. Next, in 1848 he gets Texas fever! Hiram packs all his family, cattle, and other livestock, and moves by spring wagon to Texas!

Arriving in Grayson County, Texas, he and his sons obtain land with the Peter's Colony. According to the land records and the 1850 census everyone but the Allensworth family have settled there. But in 1851 tragedy strikes, when Hiram dies intestate. His son Washington is appointed administrator by the Probate Court. The records show that his estate is divided among his wife, Sarah Elizabeth, and all seven children. Not too long after Hiram dies, Matilda's husband James Henry also dies.

Then around 1859, Matilda Fauset, her five children, and her brothers, Eli and George make the long journey to CA. A letter written by Matilda was sent to her mother-in-law back in Indiana describing this journey with all their families, household belongings, and livestock. They bought land in Tulare Co, CA.

James S and Hiram went back to Lewis County, MO. These families and the Allensworth family can be found in several census. What happened to Sarah Elizabeth Coffee is still not known. The search is still on going!

* Deborah Everitt sent the line of Emond Coffey, which we have never published in it's entirety, I had to "squease to print 5 generations. NOTE: I have also shortened Nelson County, VA to NC.V

GOOD WORKS

County Cemeteries in the News, by Frances James (excerpt)

The Wesley Cockrell Family Cemetery is now registered with the State as a Texas Historic Cemetery. This site, at the end of Dwight Street in the Arcadia Park area of Dallas, is now surrounded on two sides by acres of land that has the possibility of becoming a new country club. The Boy Scouts from Troop 769 worked very hard on one of the hottest days of the year to set the granite marker in concrete so that it would be permanently placed in the corner of the site. We have two members who participated in this registration: Mildred Coffey, wife of the late

Bernie Coffey, a member of the Cockrell family and a Boy Scout for over several years, and Mackle Dealey, also a member of the Cockrell family who has helped with the maintenance of this site through the years. Mildred still volunteers at Circle Ten Scout Headquarters.

(Millie also sent a picture of Bernie holding a skeleton which appeared in the Dallas County Pioneer Association quarterly. It was in the "Whoizit" section. The picture was taken while he was in the military. Wish we could print the picture. We'll save it in our scrapbook for the future.)
