EDITOR'S LETTER

Dear Cousins;

I can hardly believe that 2008 is nearly gone. It went by fast! Even more amazing is the amount of information that has been added to the Coffee and Coffey genealogies. Then add to that, the lineages collaborated by the DNA project. WOW!

I especially enjoyed the work contributed on Annister Coffey Chenault. Who would have dreamed that a woman in the 1700s would have left so many records. We are usually lucky to find even one record with a woman's name listed.

Then Jerry Coffee has added so much to the Peter Coffee line. Now if we could only prove parents for the people that we call "the Chesley Coffey line." (Possibly I should talk to Santa Clause about that!)

Be sure to check out the CDs listed on page 12, in Computer News. They are extremely valuable tools for working your family tree and would make great, inexpensive Christmas gifts, as well as a subscription to CCC – our newsletter.

Also, check the Coffey Convention page. Danny Coffey has negotiated a great price for the banquet and is finding many good things for us to do. Our library is growing every year as well. Russell Co, KY was home to most of the Chesley Coffey line and many of the Edward Coffey line settled in this general area as well. This sounds like a fun place to meet. Get your registration in early.

I sincerely want to thank everyone for their contributions to the newsletter this past year and for your loyalty as subscribers. Most subscriptions will expire on Dec.31, 2008.

Jim and I want to wish each and everyone a VERY MERRY CHRISTMAS.

Sincerely,

Bonnie Culley

* Janine Ramsey, jeders2@fuse.net, has a breakthrough on RICE COFFEY, son of Levi Coffey. She says, "We have been looking for the maiden name of Rice Coffey's wife, Jane for some time. Dorotha Coffey married Abner Kilpatrick and she is the sister of my (Janine) ancestor, Levi Coffey/e who married Katherine Kilpatrick, Abner's sister. Earlier, I saw a death record for Dorotha that was void of any parents. But I have found another copy of the death certificate. The mother's name appears to be Dorotha Medaris. I believe she may be Dorotha Jane Medaris and may be a heretofore unidentified daughter of William H. Medaris and Susanna Nicholson who lived in Cherokee and Burke Counties, NC.

NEW COUSINS

Carolyn Sudheimer Eigel is not actually a Coffey descendent but is researching the line of Marvel Coffey who died in Maries Co. MO. Her grandfather was a half-brother to the John Coffey children. Marvel and Rachel Boone Coffey had eight children; Lavina, Elizabeth, Temperance, Irvin, William Brazeal, Squire, Campbell and one daughter who probably died in childbirth before they moved from TN to MO. She was married to William Moss.

Carolyn is working on John Coffey, son of Irvin Coffey. John, a bugler in the Civil War, was born 15 Dec. 1844 and died 6 Sept. 1881 in Maries Co. MO. He married 11 Oct. 1866 to Susan Vanderpool. They were the parents of 4 children, Irvin, Elizabeth (Sudheimer), Oliver and Squire. After the death of John Coffey, his widow Susan married a widower, George Frederick (Fritz) Sudheimer. Carolyn says that they had a string of progeny, including her grandfather, Robert Lee Sudheimer who married Emma Wiles. They had 3 children; a daughter, Leota who died at age 9 from pneumonia, a stillborn buried at Vienna Public Cemetery and her father Charles Raymond Sudheimer. He married Margaret Hofmann of Osage City MO in August 1941.

Carolyn is having a lot of success with her Vanderpool family and would like to hear from others working on her Coffey line. Her computer is down. We hope to have an e-mail address by next issue.

COFFEY DNA REPORT

By Fred Coffey & Lorie Okel

ON THE INTERNET:

Following are three links to Coffey Cousins topics on the Internet. (We know that many of you prefer the newsletter format, but there are some topics that really take up too much space and/or do not lend themselves to presentation in a newsletter.)

COFFEY DNA PROJECT:

If you haven't checked on the Coffey / Coffee Surname DNA Project recently, drop in at the following and see what's been going on: www.coffeysws/FamilyTree/DNA

You'll find how we've been using DNA tests to explore or confirm relationships between Coffey Cousins, plus some related families. You'll find that we have a more diverse group of Cousins (or not?) than you ever imagined!

HOLT/COFFEY CONNECTIONS:

If you visit the above DNA project, you will find a very brief discussion of two HOLT families that the DNA shows to have a COFFEY connection. One involves a relationship in Whitley/McCreary County KY, and the other probably in Wilkes County NC. There's a more lengthy discussion at the following link. Our HOLT contacts are LOOKING FOR ANY ADDITIONAL INFORMATION the Coffey Cousins can offer, and you're invited to look at the following and see if you know something we don't: www.coffey.ws/familytree/DNA/HoltConnections.htm

COFFEY/CHENAULT CONNECTIONS:

The September 2008 newsletter offered some documents, provided by John Chenault, that were related to Edward Coffey and to Thomas Powell. John Chenault also made several other documents available. You can find the ones from the September newsletter, and several others, at the following link: www.coffey.ws/familytree/familynotes/CoffeyChenaultConnections.htm

CORRECTIONS

* Patsy Castanon pcastanon@satx.rr.com, says; "I am writing about an article on page 11 submitted by Jerry Coffey on the death of Elizabeth "Liz" Coffey. In his last paragraph, Jerry states that Elizabeth's ancestor was Rich Coffey of Coleman Co., TX. This information is incorrect. Elizabeth's father is Charles Coffey of Brownwood, TX. Her grandfather was Cecil Franz Coffey. Cecil's father was Brooks Coffey, the brother of my paternal grandmother, Mary Elizabeth Coffey Nesmith. Their father was John Nathan Coffey, the son of William Saunders Coffey, one of the children of Nathan Coffey who died in Alabama in 1823. Elizabeth's remains were cremated and will be placed with her grandfather in the Zephyr, TX cemetery. There was a Rich Coffey living in Coleman County in the 1800s but he is not part of my family."

 * Jack Coffee says that the following list of ancestors in Issue 110, page 9 is confusing and Peter, the author, agreed. Jack says "Just going over the latest issue of Coffey Cousins newsletter, and reading your genealogy I got lost and wonder if something was left out? Your 6th GGP are shown as Squire Boone and Sarah Morgan. Your 5th GGP are shown as William Coffey and Annie Boone, indicating to me that Annie was a daughter of Squire and Sarah!?"

My records show that Annie was a d/o Jesse Boone and Sarah McMahan; Jesse a s/o Israel and Israel a brother of Daniel and son of Squire and Sarah Morgan Boone. Peter Coffey said that Jack's version is correct. Peter's e-mail address; petericoffey@gmail.com.

* Fred Coffey, fredcoffey@aol.com, is interested in learning anything about the Nancy Chenault who married Edward Coffey's grandson, Edmund. Edmund then had a grandson and great grandson named Joseph Chenalt Coffey (Jr. and Sr.). Jack's Edward Coffey Project on the CC web page has this line. However it doesn't show Nancy's last name, and the other two are named as "Joseph C Coffey" rather than "Joseph Chenault Coffey". But there's no doubt it's the same line. Would love to discover how this line fits to the Stephen Chenault who married Edward Coffey's daughter Annister. (Jack had added a note: "Edmond Stewart Coffey and Nancy BARNETT were married in Albermarle co. or Amherst co. VA. He did marry a Nancy whose last name may have been Barnett or Shenalt. They lived mostly in Amherst co. VA on the Tye River, probably near Edmond's brother William.")

Fred adds, "He used the spelling "Shenalt" rather than Chenault. Given other relationships in that time period, I have no doubt that the name was CHENAULT."

You can pick up the youngest "Joseph Chenault Coffey" in the Edward Coffey Project by clicking on the following link, and then clicking back through the tree:

Maureen Donald, robert.maureen@sasktel.net,
ask, "Can anyone find a clue, land records, court records, etc regarding the Wilkes Co. NC Riot of 1794 as referred to by Frank Crosswhite in Dec.
1988 Coffey Cousins Clearinghouse?" (CCC would like to know more about this affair also.)

(As many may not have the 1988 CCC, I will reprint the story here.) Quote:

WILKES COUTY RIOT TRIAL OF 1784
by Frank Crosswhite

Information is needed on the "riot" for which Nathan Coffey and Joel Coffey were indicted in Wilkes County, North Carolina, in 1784. If Joel and Nathan had been riding with Salathiel Coffey on some activity that resulted in a civil disturbance, and if Salathiel were killed, it would be only natural for Joel and Nathan to stand as security for widow Elizabeth when she obtained letters of administration for her dead husband.

She obtained such letters on 28 Jul 1784, the very same day that Joel and Nathan were indicted for riot and also the same day they signed bonds for Elizabeth's administration of her dead husband's estate. Coincidence? The affair carried over to the next court session in late October 1784 when it was ordered that the sheriff sell Salathiel's perishable estate (Oct. 26). On Oct. 28, Livingston Isbel obtained letters of administration on John William Crosswhite's estate and on the very same day he filed suit against Nathan Coffey.
Another coincidence" The death of Archelaus Coffey may have occurred at about the same time as those of Salathiel Coffey and John Crosswhite, since Archelaus' widow's name appears on the tax list instead of his.

Copies of deeds show John Wm. Crosswhite's lands to have been in the Beaver Creek-King's Creek region which would have fallen into Captain Isbel's district. It had only 83 heads of families as late as the 1787 census. This is where Joel Coffey and Isaac Nebuzaraden Coffey lived as well as Mastain Durham, Colby Rucker, a number of Witherspoons and Stapps, as well as a number of families of Calton's. This would also seem to be the district where Archelaus lived before he died, but I (Frank) am uncertain where Salathiel owned land if he was indeed a landowner.

The court records of 1784 cited above, all occurred in the Wilkes County Court of Pleas and Quarters. Suspected felons would be arraigned by this court but would be remanded for trial to the district court which sat in Burke County for the region that included Wilkes. That a felon may have been involved is strongly suggested by the fact the Wilkes Co. Court that met in the summer of 1785 ordered that Patrick Hambrick be paid for carrying Nathan Coffey to the Burke jail.

At the time of the riot, Ben Cleveland had to give up his Yadkin farm, "The Roundabout".
Draper's "KING'S MOUNTAIN" book states
The Roundabout was lost to someone with a better title. At this point, Nathan Coffey seems to disappear from the Wilkes County tax lists, as does Ben Cleveland.

Joel had a brother, Chesley Coffee jr., who married a Baldwin from a Burke Co. family accused of being a Loyalists. Also indicted as suspected Tories in Burke Co. where Joseph Stapp (Stapp) and Nimrod Shenault. Joseph was most certainly a descendant of Martha Coffey Stapp and the numerous Powells of Burke County also seem to have been related to Ann Powell Coffey. Elias Powell was a young loyalist militiaman from Burke who served as personal orderly to British Colonel Patrick Ferguson during the Battle of King's Mountain. He cleaned and cared for Ferguson's body after the patriot's defiled it. Chesley Coffee jr. may have lost his residence in Burke Co. and moved to Wilkes at a time when Whigs openly displaced Tories from their land. An analysis of the Coffey families of Burke and Wilkes Counties prior to 1799 is reserved for another discussion.

(I'm not sure this story goes here but it does relate to the story above as they are assumed to be the sons of Chesley Coffee sr.)

LOOKING FOR CHESLEY

Fred Coffey, Jack Coffee, Kevin Coffey, Tim Peterman and Roger Coffey teamed up to see if we could prove if there were actually ANY DOCUMENTED EVIDENCE that Chesley Coffee sr. existed. Roger Coffey had recently taken the DNA test and matched the Edward Coffey line DNA. He is from Fielden Coffey b. ca 1830 Daviess co. MO on up and through Nebuzaraden, one of the supposed sons of Chesley sr. Maureen Donald ask in the last issue of CCC if Gloria Roach's claim that the Tax List of Washington co. NC actually said that he was 61 years of age.

Fred Coffey found there was a Chesley Coffee in Washington co. NC. (A bit of history: In 1777 Washington co. was established as part of North Carolina and it comprised what became the entire state of Tennessee. The first courts were held in Washington co. in Feb 1778. In 1785 the settlers banded together and formed the state of Franklin that included Washington co. North Carolina never accepted this and by 1788 the area was again part of North Carolina. The state of Tennessee was established in 1796.) Fred found: Washington County Tennessee Records – Vol.II Washington co. Lists of Taxables 1778-1801 Compiled by Mary Hardin Mc Cown et.al. Privately printed, Johnson City, TN 1964 Chesley Coffee is listed in 1790 through 1793 – only. In each he is shown as having 1 Free Poll, no slaves and 100 acres of land. (In 1790 his name is transcribed as “Charley Coffee”. The last three years he is Chesley Coffee. In all four years he is found in the “List of Taxable Property” taken by Richard White.

RESULTS

In North Carolina, the age at which a person became “too old” for poll tax was 50. Since this Chesley in 1793 was NOT over the poll tax age, he could not have been born earlier than 1743 (assuming that Washington co. adopted the same cut off age of 50.)

THIS HAS TO BE CHESLEY jr. (1755-1818).

NEXT ASSUMPTION

Gloria says that Joel's will states that he is a son of Chesley.

Tim Peterman furnished us with a copy of Joel's will.

Joel died in 1789 in Wilkes co. NC. His will was proved in July 1789.

“In the name of God amen – I, Joel Coffee, of North Carolina and the County of Wilkes tho weak in body yet perfect in mind and memory constitute this my last will and testament, I give my soul to God my redeemer and my body to be buried in a decent manner and after my just debts are paid I dispose of my worldly goods as follow, to wit, I give to my wife Martha, the plantation whereon I now live and all my household furniture and two Negroes namely, Harry and Teg, and all my stock of horses, cattle, sheep, and hogs enduring her natural life or widowhood, I also will that as much of my land be sold by my Executor to pay my debts. The remainder of my land to be equally divided among all my children to wit, Cleaveland, James, Joel, Nathan, Cathy, Jane, Sealy, and if my wife is at present with child, for it if it live to share an equal part with the rest and at death or marriage of my wife for what I give her to be equally divided among all my children my present estate to be improved and kept together till my youngest child come of age or marry. Nebuzaraden Coffee and my son Cleaveland Coffee Executors. I acknowledge this my last will and testament made this 27th day of April 1789.

Joel Coffee (his mark)

(Nothing says that he is the son of Chesley!!)

CHESLEY CLUE

Eliza (Coffey) Porter left a note entitled, "History of Nathan Coffey"; "Nathan Coffey was the son of Joel Coffey and Martha (Step) Coffey, was grandson of Chesley and Jane (Cleveland) Coffey, native of Virginia. But the grandparents removed to North Carolina in an early day and settled on the Yadkin River where the parents of our subject was born and raised and married..."

(This note is not proof that Joel Coffey was a son of Chesley Coffey, because the note was written almost one hundred and fifty years after Joel Coffey was born. Yet, this note is a strong implication that Chesley Coffey and Jane Cleveland were the parents of Joel. In other notes left by Eliza (Coffey) Porter, her memory was quite accurate.)

This is THE CLUE that has been used since the late 1970s to demonstrate that Joel was reported to be the son of Chesley Coffey and Jane Cleveland. Since Joel was likely the brother of Salathiel, Chesley (1755-1818), Nebuzaradan & Nathan, we assume by extension that all were sons of Chesley & Jane.

Eliza Porter left this note in the 1890s. Joel was her grandfather. How many people actually remember the names of their great-grandparents? Since Chesley (1755-1818) outlived Joel, Salathiel & Nebuzaradan by at least a couple of decades, his name may have been mentioned in the Coffey household.

SUMMATION

Right now, we have hearsay evidence only. A prominent genealogist once suggested that most lineages are traceable. The main problem is that genealogist are either looking in the wrong place, or looking for the wrong people.

No record of Chesley & Jane has ever been found. There are plenty of records of Edward and Grace (Cleveland) Coffey. We know that their deceased son, Cleveland had a widow & daughter who moved to Adair co. KY, where the daughter, Gracie, married Rutherford Coffey, son of Nathan and Mary Coffey.

I (Tim Peterman) think the most sensible thing for us would be to try to identify all of the children of Edward & Grace. Maybe we will find our family; maybe we will be able to rule them out. Tim

(I Bonnie sincerely agree with Tim. We have ignored this issue too long.)

BUT, we do have one more clue that hasn't been explored fully. There is a Chesley or Charles Coffee listed as an early settler (1752) of Albemarle co. VA. There were other Coffeys in the area. We do need to fully explore those Albemarle Co. records.

Kevin Coffey sent the following web address for Albemarle Co but it does not tell us where Alexander Brown found these names. I suspect that it was from one of the surveyor's lists. <http://www.rootsweb.ancestry.com/~vaamhers/docs/EarlySettlers.html>

Fred Coffey, fredcoffey@aol.com, has another family he would like you to look at and see if you might have anything in your records that would add to this work. He says;

We now have a y-DNA test on a descendant of William Marion Holt (Born 7 Apr 1837 in Whitley County (now McCreary County), Kentucky).

That test shows (as various Holt genealogists have long believed) that this line has the y-DNA of the Edward Coffey group. Some believe the connection will be via a descendant of the James Coffey (born in Wilkes County, NC, in about 1790) who married Sarah Sumpter.

Now, the most common claim is that William Marion Holt's father was one "Cole Coffey", whom we have not yet been able to pin down. However there was a "Coleman Coffey" living in Wayne County, KY, in the 1840 census. And this is indeed where most of the children of the above James were born. Most of the online genealogies do not identify the ancestry of suspect Cole Coffey, although there is one that claims Cole must be a son of James.

To add a bit more info, I think there is some indirect supporting evidence that the family of James Coffey WAS close to the Holt family: After William Marion was born in 1837, his mother Mary (Polly) Holt married Jackson Strunk in August of 1839. And if you look at your data, you will see that James son, Joseph, married one Bethada (or Beth Ada) Strunk. And a little digging into the Strunk family shows that Beth Ada was the NIECE of the Jackson Strunk who married William Marion's mother. (Jackson's brother was William Strunk, and Beth Ada is William's daughter.)

Further, James Coffey's son Nelson had a son John, and John married one Elizabeth Telitha Strunk. The Strunk genealogy I explored showed this marriage, but did not seem to know whom Elizabeth Telitha Strunk belonged to. But with a name like Strunk, there has to be a connection?

So I conclude the Holts, the Strunks, and the family of James Coffey, were almost certainly hanging about together. So if James didn't have a son named Cole, then any one of his four oldest sons must still be on our short list of prime suspects? (His youngest sons are a bit too young to be father of William Marion.) Here's is Fred's source of info on the Strunks:

<http://awt.ancestry.com/cgi-bin/igm.cgi?op=GET&db=sheilastrunk&id=I01147>

The "Holt" researcher working this line is Renee' Furukawa, who descends from William Marion Holt's son "General Sherman Holt". Yes, "General" appears to be his first name! Renee' persuaded one of her uncles to take the DNA test.

JACK COFFEE found quite a lot on Thomas Coleman Coffey but nothing says that he was the father of William Marion Holt.

* For those working on the Peter Coffee line, Jerry Coffee explains why Peter received a Royal Pardon. Jerry writes:

"In England, death sentences for petty crimes were quite common until the end of the 18th century. However, only 40% of the death sentences were carried out and were those of serious offenses. The death sentences for minor offenses were given a Royal Pardon.

The death sentences for minor crimes were commuted to "Transportation" with seven years indentured servitude in the American Colonies along with banishment. After completion of the seven-year sentence, the convicts were given their "freedom dues" of 50 acres of land in the backwoods and a barrel of seed corn. The American colonies were having a severe labor shortage, due to the production and export of tobacco to England. In 1776, the American Revolution ended the indentured labor system and England began sending convicts to Australia. Slavery became the labor system in America using blacks imported from Africa.

Peter Coffee's trial record and sentence can be viewed on the "Proceedings of the Old Bailey." You can navigate through the website and you can read the transcript of the trial and conviction in the original language. A copy of the indictment published in a London newspaper is also included. Peter Coffee was first acquitted due to a "fault in the indictment" but he was retried and found guilty of forgery and deception and sentenced to death.

* Marynella, marynella@bellsouth.net, says that she checked 37 cemeteries for another line and happened on two Coffeys in the Pleasant Valley Cemetery, Zeandale, and Riley co. KS.

1. Frank B. Coffey b. 12 Oct. 1883 – d. 12 Nov. 1964
2. Mary O. Coffey b. 7 Sep. 1886 – d. 16 Aug 1965

She also found a Lela Sue Webb in Lauderdale Co., AL b. unknown, d. 10 Nov 2004.

Kevin Coffey, kevinbcad@comcast.net, while working on the Eli Coffey family, comments, "I think the birth date and marriage date comes from a transcription of the Eli Coffey family bible.

I've seen this repeated many times as a source for the Eli family on several websites. My feeling is that the birth date checks out with census data but the marriage year is most likely incorrect- I think the year would be 1847 at the earliest and probably closer to 1849 given that the first child was born in 1851 and their record in the 1850 census. Some family trees I've seen list the marriage date at 1847- they no doubt found the same thing I did: the estimated birth date of Mary C. Saufley is around 1832 if you combine census data.

So given an 1832 date, she would have been 10 years old for the 1842 marriage date to be correct. I've found no marriage record for them. I think the following is a census record that many have overlooked. I only found it by going through the entire 1850 Russell County census record name by name.

The 1850 U.S. Federal Census for District Two, Russell County, Kentucky shows Stanton P. "Coffy" (28) with Mary (18) in the household of Elijah "Coffy." Elijah was the son of Cleveland Coffey and Jane Witherspoon.

Stanton's occupation is listed as a "trader"?

Stanton P. and Mary are also listed as having been married within the year. Mary's birthplace is listed as Virginia.

The following genealogy should be of real interest to anyone collecting the descendents of Edward and Ann Powell Coffey. In Marvin Coffey's book, he has the following Elizabeth Durham listed as having married a Mr. Boone. Now we know which Mr. Boone and when, thanks to Janet de la Pena, dipstudios11@comcast.net. She says, "I hope this might be of interest to the Coffey family. I was researching my little-known ancestor, (not famous) Daniel Boon of Wayne Co., KY.

This year I worked with the Boone Society, and a few other researchers, and discovered the connection of Elizabeth "Betsey" Durham, daughter of Martha "Patsey" Coffey and Mastin Durham.

Martha was born in 1758, to Rev. James Coffey and Elizabeth Cleveland, in Albemarle Co., VA, and died on Aug. 12, 1826, in Wayne Co., KY. She married Mastin Durham and they were members, like Daniel's father, Jesse Boon, of the Yadkin Church (Three Forks Baptist Church) of Wilkes Co., NC.

Their daughter, Elizabeth "Betsy" Durham, was born on Sept. 28, 1781, NC, and died in 1868, buried in Big Springs Cemetery, Parmleysville, Wayne Co., KY. (Wayne County, Kentucky Cemeteries Book, pages 687-689, copyrighted by B.B. Coffey, Sr.)

Elizabeth married Daniel Boon, born Dec. 1, 1777, NC, son of Jesse Boon and Sarah McMahan, and was grandson of Israel Boone, the older brother of famous Daniel Boone.

The birthdates for Elizabeth Durham and Daniel Boon were posted on the internet: Boone Family Genealogy Forum, Nov. 25, 2002, by Lewis Barnett, owner of a Boone Bible, purchased by his grandfather, William Alfred Kinne, about 1902, in Stearns, KY.

My research on Elizabeth Durham Boon was accepted and posted by Wayne Co., Kentucky Cemeteries. I would be glad to send you what I have, as I have tried to be brief here. Janet de la Pena."
