COFFEY COUSINS' CONVENTION
LAKE CUMBERLAND PARK, KENTUCKY

April 30 - May 2, 2009

EDITOR'S LETTER

Dear Cousins;

...And I thought this winter would be dull?.... The DNA Project has stayed busy. There are even a few Coffeys living in Ireland taking part. Fred Coffey will tell us more about it at the convention.

Speaking of the convention, Danny Coffey is going to keep us busy. He and Fred Coffey are creating a giant database of Coffeys who settled in the Russell and some surrounding counties. They already have entered information from the older census, cemeteries, and some reliable genealogies. The purpose being to identify relationships. Most of the descendants of four sons of Chesley Coffey sr. moved from Wilkes Co. N.C. to Russell Co. KY.

If you are researching any of the Chesley Coffey sr. lines, it would be a good idea to attend the convention at Lake Cumberland State Park, Kentucky. (see page 17)

Another piece of exciting news is that John Taylor and Jack Coffee are working on a database of Virginia Cemeteries. I will have more to tell you about this one in the next issue.

The Daniel Boone (1777) story, proving him as a Coffey descendant on his mother's side is a good addition. I applaud Janet de la Peña's great job of documentation. I am a little concerned about the accuracy of Marvel Coffey being listed as from the Thomas Coffey line. We have tried to put him there before without success, but I have never seen him called Asbury Marvel either. My "Thomas Coffey" book seems to have disappeared after one of the last two conventions. I would appreciate it if everyone would check your books to see if mine might have accidentally got into your collection. (Thomas Coffey jr did have an Asbury? Something to look into.)

I wish to thank Camilla LaFavers for the Russell and Adair Counties cemetery records, plus more. Some I've had to save for the next issue.

I know many of you knew Lillian Harrell. She was one of our early researchers. Lillian responded to my query when I first subscribed to the Coffey newsletter. She was always willing to share her files. Her obituary is on page 4. We will sincerely miss her.

Last but not least, I want to thank all who sent in their subscription renewals on time. It makes my job so much easier. I really enjoy all the notes. Sometimes it's the only time I may hear from you and now I know you are still interested in the Coffey research. If I've missed printing your story, send it again. It's always appreciated.

I look forward to seeing you at Lake Cumberland. Get your reservations in quick. "How Time Flies!"

Sincerely,

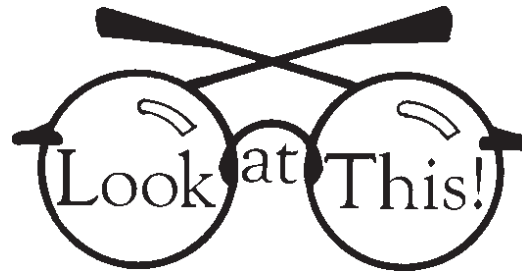

Bonnie Culley

To all who make this issue possible.

NEW COUSINS

* Janet De La Pena, dlpstudios11@comcast.net, has sent a well documented record of her descent from Jesse Boone through his son Daniel Boone (b. 1777) who married Elizabeth Durham daughter of Martha (Patsy) Coffey and Mastin Durham. Martha was born 1758 to Rev. James Coffey and Elizabeth Cleveland in Albemarle Co. VA. Janet's records are in this issue under Documents Galore.

* Thelma Jean Carson is the step daughter of Dorris Coffee of Enid, OK. They descend from the Chesley Coffee line. Dorris says that she also has a cousin that is interested in the Coffee genealogy and we will hear from him later. (Thanks Dorris for spreading the word.)

* Don Kerns, DKerns823@aol.com, descends from Permelia Coffey, daughter of Quintis Coffey and Francis Ann Blakey of Russell County, KY. Don has a special interest in Quintis, because he was in the Fifth Kentucky Cavalry in the Civil War, with General Sherman in the Atlanta Campaign and his March to the Sea. Quintis was taken prisoner on March 10, 1865 at Monroe's Crossroads, North Carolina, but exchanged just a few days later. Don has been working the Russell Co. files but could use more help. It's a long way from California to Russell Co. His address is in the new cousins list.

* Lorel Kapke lorelak@vom.com, says that she hopes that someone will recognize her family and contact her. The following is a compilation of Porter and Nora Coffey; with various results!
 Porter N. COFFEY (George Alfred C.-3, James-2, Martin-1) was born in Stanford, Lincoln Co., KY on (6 Nov 1869) Jun 11, 1869, (7 May 1868 - d. 28 April 1944) He died in 1946 in Milwaukee, Milwaukee Co., WI.

Porter N. COFFEY and Nora CAMPBELL were married on Dec 18, 1895 in Washington Co., KY. Nora CAMPBELL was born about 1883, (18

Nov. 1878. She died in 15 Dec. 1947)

They had the following children:

1) Sam M. COFFEY was born 1919 Wisconsin.

{Note: from Lorel} A story about Sam M.

Coffey: Nora and Porters housekeeper had an illegitimate child, that she left with Nora & Porter. This story does not sound correct to me but I have nothing to verify his birth at this time.

2) Lorena COFFEY was born in Kentucky 21 Aug 1900 d. d. 23 October 1929 of TB

3) Bernice Earl COFFEY was born in Kentucky 21 September 1897 d. 2 December 1954.

MAIL BOX

LaVonne Hoel writes that she is still taking chemo and is holding her own. I know that we all only wish her our best and send her a hardy "get well soon" wish.

Jo Langwell has had problems with her eyes and had a CAT scan. It was determined that she has had a small stroke. She will be back to work before this issue of CCC comes out. We hope she is better soon.

Dead End Roads

* Jean Hall writes that the line of Felicia Coffey & James Turnbo that appeared in Issue 111 on page 10 is her line. She would like to correspond with anyone working on this line. Jean also added more information to what was printed in Issue 111. First be sure to correct James Turnbo's death date to 19 Aug. 1811 Maury Co. TN. James Turnbo and Felicia Coffey were married 2 Aug. 1811 in Maury Co. TN.

The 4th of their children, Grace M. "Gracie" Turnbo, married 14 Sept. 1842 to Martin Harrison Johnston (corrected from Johnson). Martin was in the Civil War and died of pneumonia near Little Rock, AR.

Jean says that their daughter Mary Felicia Frances Elizabeth (yes all 4 names) Turnbo married Elijah Smith Bullard (she used the name of Elizabeth or Liz.) They are Jean's great grandparents.

The Turnbo graveyard is located in the old 11th District, which is southeast of the town of Mt. Pleasant, TN. This area is in the southwestern section of the county, not far from the Giles/Maury Co. line. The graveyard is about midway between the hamlets of Enterprise and Spencer Hill and contains the stones of James Turnbo and Felicia (Coffey) Turnbo.

Felicia's maiden name is spelled both Coffee/Coffey in the county records.

Jean's address is 150 Summit Drive, Cedar Falls, IA 50618 and phone 319-266 0290.

* Juanita (Coffey) Cranfield, 614 Shoemaker St., Athens TN 37303, is still hoping to connect with other working on her line. She descends from Cleveland (1780-1843

* Fred Coffey, Fredcoffey@aol.com, says; We now have a new DNA project participant, with an apparent Chenault connection, which raises new questions.

This person descends from a Joseph Chenault COFFEY Jr. (1843 VA), whose father was Joseph Chenault COFFEY Sr. (1802 VA) .and some genealogies claim the two descend from an Edmund S COFFEY (1735 VA), who they believe may have married a Nancy CHENAULT. Descent is as follows (also can be seen on the DNA web page):

Edmund Stewart COFFEY (1735 VA) - - wife was Nancy, may have been Nancy CHENAULT?

Edmund Stewart COFFEY Jr. (1773 VA)

Joseph Chenault COFFEY (1802 VA)

Joseph Chenault COFFEY Jr (1843 VA).

CURRENTS IN THE STREAM

Have you not been able to get a copy of Marvin Coffey's book? Lori Okel says that you can acquire a copy from the library of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints – LDS. You can download it from the microfilm to a flash drive or CD. You have to order the film and have it sent to one's local Family History Library (LDS Mormon Church). You can also make paper copies as well. KEEP IN MIND – it is under copyright and can not be sold. You may copy and use for your own purposes but may not sell it.

COFFEY CAMP dinner attracts large crowd to hear Gilmore

(Extracted from the Herald Tribune, Nevada MO)

The program for the Seventh Annual Col. John T. Coffee Camp No. 1934, Sons of Confederate Veterans, Confederate Heritage Dinner in Osceola, MO., was held on the evening of Saturday April 5. The largest crowd to ever hear author Donald Gilmore turned out for the annual event. Gilmore, a senior editor at the Ft. Leavenworth Combat Studies Institute delivered a spirited 45-minute talk culminating in a standing ovation by an appreciative crowd. The speech was based on his new book, "The Civil War on the Missouri/Kansas Border."

The dinner and talk are part of the Col. John T. Coffee Camp's ongoing education program. In his talk Gilmore asserts that the war on the Missouri/Kansas border was the beginning of the War Between the States and it spread eastward to the rest of the South. He talked about the pre-meditated nature of the War, which was encouraged by economic interests in the Northeast who wanted to destabilize Missouri. Speaking directly about the burning of Osceola in 1861, he showed that it was an extension of what had been happening for more than half a decade. He also talked about the bravery of those Missourians who resisted the Northern invasion and suffered terrible depredations during and after the war.

Sons of Confederate Veterans serves the Osage River Valley – Barton, Bates, Benton, Camden, Cedar, Dade, Dallas, Henry, Hickory, Miller, Morgan, Folk, St. Clair and Vernon counties in Missouri.

* Kevin Coffey, kevinbcad@comcast.net, says that he has a new twist on his Thomas J. Coffey (Stonewall Jackson Coffey). He was a twin and his brother was Robert L. Coffey.

Kevin believes that Robert lived in DeKalb Co. Missouri and was married to Mary T. (1930 US census). He has updated the list of children for Stanton and Mary Coffey. He found 2 more children who probably died at an early age. Mary remarried after Stanton's death to Reuben Payne.

DOCUMENTS GALOREDANIEL BOONE of Wayne County, Kentucky

Compiled and written by Janet de la Pena

DANIEL BOONE was born on Dec. 1, 1777, to Jesse Boon and Sarah McMahan, in Burke Co., NC, and was probably named after Jesse's famous Uncle Daniel. Jesse was the son of Israel Boone., an older brother of the famous Daniel Boone.

Descendants of Israel Boone, by Alice H. Boone, 1969, McCann & Litho Co., Springfield, MO: "Daniel Boone, born in NC in 1776-77; died in Mercer Co., KY, sometime after 1843. Married 1st, on Jan 1, 1800, a second cousin, Nancy Boone; and 2nd, Elizabeth ____."

BOONE Family Genealogy Forum on the Internet: Nov. 25, 2002, Lewis Barnett posted this about a "Boone Bible:"

"About 100 years ago my Grandfather, William Alfred Kinne, purchased near Stearns, KY, a Bible, which he referred to as a "Boone Bible." It is a King James version, said to have been printed in Edinburgh in 1797. Written in it between the Old and New Testaments is the following:

"Daniel Boone was born December 1 the year 1777

Betsey his wife was born September the 28, 1781. Polley? Boone was born the 31 Day January 181 (sic)"

Mr. Barnett continued: "I assume from the various fora, that this Daniel is the son of Jesse Boone and Sarah McMahan, but if so, his wife is listed as Nancy Boone. Can anyone shed any light on this?" (He received no response on the Internet, until I contacted him over six years later in 2008.)

I found Mr. Barnett's grandfather, William Alfred Kinne, on the internet, in several books and publications. One source:

Internet: From Sailing Ships to Spitfires, by Shirley Walker, includes the Industrial Revolution, circa 1902. I was only able to view Chapter 3: There are thousands out of work: which says that Mr. Kinne was employed by Mr. Justus Stearns, founder of Stearns Co., KY.

P. 70: "When Justus Stearns built his town at the site of the old town of Hemlock on the Cincinnati Southern route, he built an electric plant and the residents experienced electricity for the first time in 1903

P. 71: By this time, Stearns had agents scattered around the country looking for business opportunities, with a special interest in increasing his depleting lumber resources in the Midwest. In 1900, Stearns sent Al Kinne to Kentucky to secure properties to add to his timber holdings. By all accounts, William Alfred Kinne was an effective and amiable ambassador for Justus Stearns. He traveled extensively through Kentucky and Tennessee, his warm and outgoing nature winning him friendships with the mountain people . . . "

P. 72: "The Stearns Company had become the sole proprietor of the town of Stearns . . . "

Mr. Kinne's daughter, Theresa, who married in September of 1915, to Brinkley Barnett, of Somerset, KY, was the mother of Mr. Lewis Barnett.

This establishes the fact that Mr. William Alfred Kinne had the opportunity to buy this Boone Bible in Stearns, KY, and pass it on to his grandson, Lewis Barnett.

NANCY BOONE, first wife and second cousin of Daniel Boon, was born on Sept. 1, 1782, NC, to Israel Boone and Milly Callaway. Nancy and Daniel married on Jan. 1, 1800, NC, and had one child, Mary "Polly" Boon. According to Dorthy Mack of the Boone Society, there is no proof that this Israel ever married. This Israel was born on Jan. 25, 1759, NC, to Daniel Boone and Rebecca Bryan, and died at the age of 23, at the Battle of Blue Licks, KY, on August 19, 1782, days before Nancy was born. He supposedly married Milly on Jan. 1, 1774.

All of the Milly Callaways that I have found were married to others. Nothing further is currently known about Nancy, other than she was probably deceased by the time Daniel married again.

MARY POLLY BOON was born on Jan. 31, 1801, to Daniel Boon and Nancy Boone, in Buncombe (formerly Burke), NC, and died at the age of 84, on Feb. 23, 1886, in (probably Savannah Township), Andrew Co., MO.

Her son, William Franklin McKinney, Jr., wrote on Oct. 28, 1916, Kansas City, MO (excerpt):
 “. . . My mother was borned in Buncombe Co., North Carolina in 1801. She was the only child. Her parents were Daniel Boone, a close relative of the celebrated Kentucky Daniel Boone. Grand Pa Boone's wife was a Durham . . .” (Provided by Judy McKinney, Halfway, MO.)

1805 Tax List for Burke County lists Jesse Boone with over 600 Acres (640 acres is a square mile) in Coleman's Company. A listing in the same company shows Smith Coffey, who married Jesse's daughter, Hannah, and William Coffey, who married Anna, and also Daniel Boone as having taxable property.

Some sources suggest that Daniel left North Carolina, with his father, Jesse, about 1824, and settled in McMinn, TN. Land records indicate that Daniel may have already settled in Wayne Co., KY, about 1811, with the Mastin Durham family.

At this date, nothing further is known about Daniel's first wife, Nancy, except that she was likely deceased by the date of his marriage to second wife, Elizabeth Durham, about 1812.

Daniel Boone's second wife, ELIZABETH “Betsey” DURHAM, was born on Sept. 28, 1781, to MASTIN DURHAM and MARTHA COFFEY, in North Carolina. Daniel and Elizabeth were married about 1812.

Our Boone Families, Daniel Boone's Kinfolk.
 by Sarah Ridge Rockenfield, 1917-1991,
 (Whipporwill Publications, Evansville, IN), p.
 373-376. Filson Historical Society, Louisville, KY:

p. 373: Nancy Boone was born about 1814, to Daniel Boone and Elizabeth Durham. She married on Feb. 27, 1834, to Thomas Surrell in Wayne Co., KY. (Descendants of Israel Boone,” by Alice H. Boone, McCann Printing and Litho Co., Springfield, MO, 1969.)

This family was either deceased or avoided the census records. I found one such Sherrill family in Illinois, which fits the age requirement, but can't be proven.

p. 374: Jesse Boone was born about 1815, to Daniel Boone and Elizabeth Durham. He married “Mrs. Elizabeth Boone” in 1835.

“There may have been other children of the second marriage, as court records in Wayne County are missing 1813-1831.”

1824, Daniel's parents and some siblings removed to and settled in McMinn Co., TN, when his father, Jesse, fell out of fellowship in a dispute with their church. Land records indicate that Daniel may have already settled in Wayne Co., KY, about 1811, with the Mastin Durham family.

1826, McMinn Co., TN - Daniel Boon was established as a member of the Zion Hill Baptist Church.

“Zion Hill Church (McMinn, TN) Minutes:

“p. 26– 3rd Saturday in Feb 1829: - ‘Granted Daniel Boon a letter of Dismission.’

It is not clear where Daniel was residing during this church membership. According to his father, Jesse Boon’s Will, written November 23, 1829, of McMinn, TN, Daniel’s inheritance of land was willed to Daniel’s brother, Israel: “. . . My land lying on Middle Creek to be divided between my sons Israel and Jonithan according to lines thereto agreed afore, - viz. the parts laid off for Israel and Daniel Boon to belong to Israel . . . “

“23 April 1829 – Israel and Elizabeth Boon of Wayne Co., to John Slone - $50.00 – 45 acres on Beaver Creek. Daniel was a witness for brother, Israel Boon, and wife Elizabeth, who ‘moved soon afterwards to McMinn County, Tenn.’” (Wayne County Court Records)

1830 Census for Wayne Co., KY - Daniel and Elizabeth Boon were possibly not counted.

Jan. 7, 1831 - Daniel Boon of Wayne Co., KY, made two land grants at Elk Spring Creek, about 1.9 miles ENE of Monticello, KY.

The Kentucky Land Grants (database on-line), Vol. 1, Part 1, Chapter VI, Kentucky Land Warrants (1816-1873), The Counties of Kentucky, p. 483: Wayne Co., KY, 2 acres and 7 acres: book A-2, p. 29 - Grantee - Daniel Boone, (survey date for both grants) Jan. 7, 1831, Elk Spring Cr. (Creek) (water course). (Filson Club Pub. 1925, “The Kentucky Land Grants.” Vol. I-II, Louisville, KY.)

“25 Sep 1831– Daniel Boon and Elizabeth his wife of Wayne Co., to Micajah Phillips - $300.00

– 80 acres adjoining land of Rane McKinney. (Mary “Polly” Boon married Rane’s son, Wm F. McKinney.)

“ 1833– Jesse Wilson to Rane McKinney - $50.00— 50 acres. Witnesses: Israel Boon, Elizabeth (X) Boon, Mary A. McKinney
1840 Census Wayne Co., KY

Daniel Boon (50-60), and wife (50-60) alone at home, and no other Boons/Boones were found in Wayne County in this census. This is the last census to record Daniel Boon.

“8 Apr 1843– Daniel Boon to Wiseman Loving – land on Elk Spring Creek.” This seems to be the last legal record for Daniel Boon.

1850 Census for Wayne Co., KY - Elizabeth Boon was possibly not counted here.

1860, Elizabeth Durham Boon, probably widowed, resided with her sister, Selah “Celia” Durham Fairchild, Celia’s husband, Rev. Ebenezer Fairchild, and their five adult, unmarried children. Rev. Fairchild was pastor of “Old Bethel,” the Bethel Baptist Church in Parmleystown, which was organized in 1810.

July 2, 1860 Wayne Co., KY

Fairchild, “Eben” (Ebenezer) (75) NC, farmer, Celia (76) NC, Elizabeth (51) NC, Sarah (45) KY, Louisa (42) KY, Nancy (29) KY, and Celia’s sister -Boon, Elizabeth (79) NC.

Elizabeth “Betsy” Durham Boon died in 1868, and was buried in the Big Springs Cemetery, in Parmleystown, located 2.1 miles S/W of Rd. 92 on Burfield Rd., in Wayne Co., KY. As entered in Big Springs Cemetery: “ELISABETH BOON 1781-1868.”

At this writing in 2008, I have not seen proof of the date of death or burial of Daniel Boon.

In this no- longer- used cemetery, a group of ladies in 1977, identified 49 graves, while 71 graves were either not recorded or were unidentifiable.

They posted comments as to some identities and relationships, but did not make any for Elizabeth Boon, suggesting that they were unaware of Elizabeth’s husband, Daniel, or her relationship as daughter to Mastin Durham (1755-1844), who was also buried there. (Wayne County, Kentucky Cemeteries, p. 687-689)

August of 2008, I contacted "Add-A-Grave, Wayne County, Kentucky Cemetery Project," and gave them identifying information for Elizabeth Boon, which the Project accepted and added, identifying me as the contributor, and can be found on the internet under "Wayne County, Kentucky Cemeteries."

I, also, worked with Dorthy Mack of the Boone Society, who accepted my research, which she added to her Boone Society collection.

Janet de la Pena, dlpstudios11@comcast.net, found an online death certificate for Squire Coffey, son of Marvel Coffey and Rachel Boone.

The informant was James Moss of Dixon, MO, and he gave Squire's father as MARVEL Coffey, born in "Tennessee." He put Squire's mother as "unknown."

Death Certificate has: Squire born on May 6, 1828, TN, and died on Sept. 10, 1912, in Weaubleau, Hickory Co., MO, buried in Robinson Cemetery. He was widowed. (We know that Marvel Coffey was born in North Carolina.)

Russell Co. KY Tombstones

(Listed in Norah Miller Cemetery Book)

If these are your ancestors, you might want to double check these dates as tombstones are very hard to read and transcribing them is difficult as well.

First column is given names with all surnames being Coffey. Second column is birth date, second is death date and last column is the number given to the particular cemetery listed in Russell Co. Cemeteries in the last issue 111 of CCC.

State of New York
Office of the Attorney-General

Albany, August 18, 1916

Before the Commissioners of the Land Office

In the Matter of the Application of Caroline Coffey to the Commissioners of the Land Office for the Release of the State's Interest in a Narrow Strip of Land on the North Side of West Twenty-fourth Street, East of Tenth Avenue, in the City of New York, Alleged to have Escheated to the State.

To the Commissioners of the Land Office:

Gentlemen. – The verified petition herein and other proofs show that the petitioner is 73 years of age and is the widow of Hugh Coffey, to whom she was married in December, 1863, in the city of New York; that he said husband, Hugh Coffey, was a native of Ireland and came to this country prior to 1850 and was soon afterward duly naturalized; that in March, 1865, he purchased from George Warner the premises known as 445 West Twenty-fourth street in the city of New York, where the petitioner has resided continuously for upwards of forty years until very recently.

In the deed of the petitioner's husband the said premises were described as being parts of lots Nos. 77 and 78 on map of estate of T. B. Clark, beginning at a point on the north side of Twenty-fourth street, 245 feet and 10 inches east of Tenth avenue; thence easterly 22 feet and 10 inches by 98 feet and 9 inches deep; that petitioner's husband continued to hold the title to said premises until 1873, when, becoming enfeebled in health, he expressed a desire to convey said premises to the petitioner, his wife, who had contributed to the purchase price thereof, and for that purpose employed attorneys, now deceased, to prepare deeds of said premises to convey title to here; that through inadvertence the starting point of said deeds was incorrectly stated at 255 feet and 10 inches instead of 245 feet and 10 inches, leaving a difference of 10 feet; that petitioner's attention was only called to this error recently when she placed her premises in the market for sale, although she has been in full possession during all these years of the premises beginning 245 feet and 10 inches east of Tenth avenue.

She further shows that he husband did not own any interest in any other premises on 24th street, but that the deed to her inadvertently overlaps the lot of an adjoining owner on the east side who had good title thereto.

Hugh Coffey died in the city of New York May 3, 1881, intestate and without issue. He left, however, besides the petitioner, a brother, Robert Coffey, who came to this country from Ireland and was naturalized in 1855 and died November 3, 1875, intestate, a widower, leaving one daughter, Elizabeth, his only heir-at-law, who subsequently married one Rufus Lisk. Elizabeth Lisk, by deed dated September 5, 1912, quit-claimed all of her interest in this 10-foot strip to the petitioner.

The petitioner's husband, Hugh Coffey, had also another remaining brother named Andrew Coffey, who always resided in Ireland, and was a non-resident alien. He died there in 1881, having never filed his intention to become an American citizen. He died intestate, leaving him surviving his widow, Martha, and five children, all of whom still reside in Ireland, with the exception of one son, Robert James Coffey, who emigrated to Canada, and all of said five children have been at all times non-resident aliens. Robert James Coffey died in Canada in December, 1912, leaving a widow and three infant children, all residing in Canada. The widow of all of the heirs-at-law of Andrew Coffey exception said Robert James Coffey, quit-claimed their interest in said premises to the petitioner by deed dated October 22, 1912.

The petitioner is advised by counsel (and I think correctly) that Elizabeth Lisk as the only child of Robert Coffey, deceased, legally inherited an undivided one-half interest in said ten-foot strip, but as Andrew Coffey, the other brother, is a non-resident alien, his children could not inherit from him, and upon the death of said Andrew Coffey said Andrew's undivided one-half interest in said ten-foot strip passed by escheat to the State.

The petitioner has paid all the taxes upon said premises and has kept the same in repair since 1874.

The present market value of the whole of the premises 445 West Twenty-fourth street is about $13,000, and the undivided one-half interest in said ten-foot strip does not exceed the amount of $2,120, subject to the petitioner's right of dower therein, which would be at the rate of $624 per front foot. The petitioner says she has no property or income outside of said premises.

Technically there appears to have been an escheat to the State of an undivided one-half of the westerly ten feet of the house and lot No. 445 West Twenty-fourth street, but evidently it was the intention of the petitioner's husband to convey the said premises to her, and the error in the deed was evidently an error on the part of the scrivener only, and it is very questionable whether the State could dispossess the petitioner as to said ten feet under said technical escheat. The escheat, however, did not occur on the death of her husband, but by reason of the fact that her husband's brother Andrew was and remained a non-resident alien and died such.

Therefore, if your honorable body see fit to grant the prayer of the petition, I think $1.00 consideration should be paid.

Respectfully submitted

E. E. WOODBURY,
Attorney-General

COFFEY COUSINS CONVENTION 2009

LAKE CUMBERLAND STATE PARK, RUSSELL CO., KY
APRIL 30 - MAY 2, 2009

FEATURED PROGRAMS

"How DNA affects our research", beginning at 1:30 Friday afternoon.
by Fred Coffey, Chairman, Coffey DNA Project

WORKSHOPS

Be sure to bring your Coffee/ey work books. Fred Coffey and Danny Coffey are SERIOUSLY working on the Chesley Coffey line who almost all settled in Russell co KY area. We will set up other tables for those working other lines, depending on who is there.

RESERVATIONS

Lodge Reservations: 1-800-325-1709

Be sure to say that you are with the Coffey Cousins.

Single or double rooms - $80.96

2 bedroom cottage/2 bath - $143.98

Campsites with electric - $22.00

(All have 10% tax.)

BANQUET

The banquet will be Saturday evening, with a great Hot Buffet with 2 entrees, plus. Really good price!

Bring something for the silent auction. It's fun!

HOW DO I GET THERE??

The convention will be in the Lake Cumberland State Park Lodge. The address is 5465 State Park Road, Jamestown, KY 42629.

"Google" told me to take U.S. Highway 127 from Russell Springs through Jamestown on through the village of Freedom to State Park Road. This road will lead us to the Park Lodge. If coming from the south, you will still have to enter the Park road from U.S.127.

Number wishing to eat at the banquet @ $16.00 each..... $.....

(This includes tax and tips)

Please mark one entree for each guest.

Entrees will be fried catfish _____ roast turkey & dressing _____

Please add attendees names on back of this slip so name tags and registration packets can be prepared ahead of time. Thank you.
