Notes for OLIVER ELLIOTT WILHELM:

Used to visit his daughter Mabel and her husband (my grandmother) when I was small and when they lived on the Gore place on Route 11, between Verona and Ft. Defiance, VA. Can recall visiting the barnyards of the Gore farm with him while he tended the sheep--he was a sheep lover. Can remember him playing with me out on the back porch and eating mud pies made with kool-aid. He was an old man with no teeth then but very sprightly and but lived many more years until I was about 15--he was 92 when he died.

Children of MYRTLE COFFEY and OLIVER WILHELM are:

Notes for ELVA OASIE WILHELM:

Very dark-complexioned women with olive skin. Looked a lot like her neices, Betty and Kaye, and her great niece, Deborah. Remember visiting her at the Wilhelm home place and that she loved dogs--especially spaniels. You would come in up a long winding dirt drive up the hill alongside the barn and to the house--all the while the dogs would be barking and yapping at the visitors that were arriving. Elva knew company was coming long before the car ever came into sight from the alarm raised by the dogs.

Marriage Notes for DEBORAH SENSABAUGH and BRETT TOWER:

Married by Hugh Morgan, Federal Magistrate, at the Confederate Soldiers and Sailors Memorial in Bayview Park. Two days prior to wedding date, thought we would have to cancel wedding as there was a hurricane in the area and could not locate a hall on short notice to hold wedding ceremony/reception in. Best man: Troy Carroll, BMC, USCG; Maid of Honor: Delores Benson (nee Knopf?). Bride escorted by Timothy Carroll. Small wedding attended by groom's parents, sister and maternal grandmother, U. S. Customs Service officers of the Key West, Key Largo and Miami offices and bride's son, Steven Short. No members of bride's family attended. Reception continued at Poinciana lounge with drinks and country dancing. Federal Magistrate was late arriving and everyone but us was panicking. Arrived 1/2 hour late and then forgot words to Lord's Prayer. Groom's mother extremely upset that magistrate's wife wore black to wedding (had to explain that she was Spanish and that black was the appropriate color to wear to a wedding in the Spanish culture). Mom didn't care!!!!

Honeymoon - 13 ft. travel trailer rented from U. S. Navy Recreational Services parked in front yard of our house due to overnight guests. Groom's relatives driven to Ft. Lauderdale airport the day after (Sunday) and both returned to work on Monday.
