Thanks for your reply, Jack.

I will send you and Bonnie more comprehensive information a little later. We have only just uncovered the roots of Frances Fields ourselves and still need to update our trees to incorporate all the new information we have.

In the mean time the attached files, show the links to Elizabeth Coffey and Thomas Fields. I have also included a photo of Susan Caroline Berry (Connelly) who is the daughter of Frances Fields and James Connelly.

Any photos you have of our family Coffey, Fields, etc would be appreciated. I think I have read most of the available information on the Coffey's and Fields, etc, on the net, but that doesn't stop me from wanting to know more.

Anyway, give me a little time to organise myself and I will send you my family file, together with a few more photos

Regards,

Paul Hermann

Hi Paul,

Thanks for writing!

You apparently have information on Thomas and Elizabeth's descendants that has heretofore been unknown to many, if not most, Coffey researchers that I know. I believe that Bonnie Culley, editor of the Coffey Cousins' newsletter would love to have the info that you sent plus any additional that you can provide on Morgan and Catherine.

Bonnie can be reached at bculey@embarqmail.com I am including her in this reply.

If you haven't already, check the following:

<http://www.thecoffeycousins.org/Edward%20Coffey/b1445.htm#P664>

From there you can work backwards through Elizabeth's parents, John and Jane Graves Coffey to Edward, out oldest known Coffey ancestor in America. You can also work forward a little on Thomas and Elizabeth Coffey Fields descendants.

Regards - Jack

Hello Jack

Can you believe that your Coffee family made it all the way to Australia?
Elizabeth Coffey b 1749 married Thomas Fields. Their son William b1780 married Susan Morgan and had Morgan Fields b,1797 in Wilkes Co.
Morgan married Catherine Humphreys and one of their youngest daughters Frances b1836 married an Englishman in New Orleans in 1860 named James Connelly. They then migrated to Australia about 1855, settled in the gold rush town of Bathurst and had several children. They later moved back to western Sydney where they lived out their years.

Very interested in the information you have on this line and would appreciate more detail.

Regards,

Paul Hermann
